EVERY FIFTEENTH MAN IN FRANCE FROM WISCONSIN

Every fifteenth American fighting man in France today is from Wisconsin, according to Adj.-Gen. Orlando H. Way of the Wisconsin Guard.

Gen. Way today announced that the Wisconsin National Guard is the first state organization to reach the battle front in its entirety. The first units left last fall with the Rainbow Division, while the balance of the troops landed in "a French port" a week ago.

In addition to the guard, there are thousands of Wisconsin volunteers in France with the army and navy.

DOINGS IN CIRCUIT COURT

The jury was called to duty again on Wednesday and things started up to court, after a recess since last week. Several of the criminal cases have been continued over, and those that were to have been called on Wednesday will be taken up on the 3rd of April. The defendants in those have expressed their willingness to plead guilty to the charge against them, so that it is probable that they will be disposed of in short order. Those who will plead guilty are Joseph Wolf of Neokosa, on the charge of selling intoxicating liquor in dry territory; Paul Swartz who is charged with assault with intent to do great bodily harm, and that of the state against Herman Gash. The case of George Smith against F. X. Pannaville has been continued over to the next term.

Wm. Nimmensen against Fred Korosh has been settled out of court. Harvey Geo and G. D. Hamill against Joe Mosher has been dismissed.

Ellen C. Gwynn against the C. M. & St. P. Ry. has been continued. Charles Demko against O. G. Maide has been continued.

John DeVore against G. H. Munroe has been continued.

J. W. Dolan against the G. B. & W. Ry., continued. Matt Heunins against the G. B. & W. Ry., dismissed.

Wm. Goldberg against the Seneca, Sigol & Rudolph insurance company, continued.

The case of John A. Langer, et al. vs. Alfred Raiman was tried on in circuit court Wednesday and resulted in a verdict for the plaintiff. This was over an automobile which the plaintiff claimed the defendant had purchased from him, the defendant contending that he had had the automobile only on trial, and after keeping it for several days, had returned the car. The trial was by jury and the plaintiff was represented by Charles E. Briere and the defendant by John Roberts.

WILL LIVE IN TEXAS

Mrs. Guy Getts left on Friday for Waco, Texas, where she will join her husband. Mr. Getts has been located in Waco for some time past where he has been in business, and reports that he likes the country first rate.

DEATH OF J. M. SANDERSON

John M. Sanderson, a former resident of Grand Rapids, died in Shawano on Sunday of last week after an illness of two and one-half years from cancer of the throat.

The deceased was born on a farm near Albany, New York, on Nov. 29, 1849, and lived there until a young man when he enlisted in the Civil war, being a member of the 116 New York Independent Battery, being in the Army of the Potomac. He served faithfully and well for three years and then went to Chicago where he lived a short time and then moved to Portage, where he lived until 1892 and two sons were born to this union, Warren Sanderson of Owatonna, Minnesota, and H. M. Sanderson of Shawano, who, besides the widow, survive. He also leaves two sisters and a brother who live in New York city where they moved to this state. In 1899 they moved to this state where they conducted the Witter hotel for a few years and then moved to Oconto where they conducted the Bever House for ten years, and four years ago sold out and has taken life easy since then. For the past three years they have made their home in Shawano.

CITIZEN WAS ASTOUNDED

One of our citizens was seen hurrying down the street on Tuesday, when suddenly he stopped at one side and entered a saloon—that is, he tried to enter it, but the door was locked, and he fetched up against the plate glass with a bang that nearly broke it in the front of the building. A bank clerk came over his face and he looked as if somebody had swindled him out of a fortune, or that his best friend had betrayed his trust, or something of that kind. It was evident that he was at a loss to know what was the matter with the friendly bystander informed him that it was election day, and that the saloons were not open. A look of comprehension spread over his benign countenance, as he exclaimed: "Gosh, guess I'd better go up and vote." All of which shows that it takes an awful toll to wake some of these people up to their duty.

SUGAR IS SCARCE

For several days past the housewives of Grand Rapids have been carrying their sugar home in pretty small packages, only one pound being allowed each purchaser. It appears that the shortage is general. For local merchants have received requests from adjacent cities asking them to let them out a temporary shortage. Of course it was impossible for them to do so, as they did not have the stock, some of the local merchants being entirely out.

BUYS ICE CREAM BUSINESS

W. L. Chambers has bought out the ice cream business of the Mott & Wood company, and the Mott & Wood company have taken over the butter business of the Chambers Creamery company. Hereafter the Mott & Wood company will devote their entire time to the making of butter and furnishing pasteurized milk, and the Chambers company will manufacture ice cream only. This will enable both of the firms to give their patrons better service than they were able to do before.

MEASLES ARE PREVALENT

According to reports from the teachers in our public schools and others, there never was a time when so many pupils were compelled to remain away from school on account of measles. Doctors to whom they are taken to get cured, report that they now have the measles who have had the disease once before, which would indicate that the best plan is to use all possible precautions to prevent the children from having the disease at all.

Church's Drug Store.

The Elk's Club.

WILL MEET HERE

The Central Wisconsin Press Association will hold a meeting in this city some time in April. This is the annual business session, and is generally held in February, but owing to the poor transportation facilities this past winter the meeting was postponed until the boys and girls are getting home and back home again during the same week.

TO THOSE WHO THINK

Judge Marvin Rosenberry, presiding Supreme Court Judge, Supreme Court Judge, Farmer, Lawyer, then Judge, Record as Judge Good, Record as Man Good, Record should count. If you have nothing against him, why change? "Keep Supreme Court out of Politics."

CANDIDATE FOR SUPERVISOR

I hereby announce my candidacy for Supervisor in the 6th Ward, City of Grand Rapids, and if elected will perform the duties of the office to the best of my ability.

WILL OTTO.

BUILDING A FACTORY

The Mott & Wood company is erecting a cheese factory at Fisher's Crossing, which is about four miles northwest of Grand Rapids, on the western end of the line. They are also putting up a new cheese factory at Bancroft.

Lloyd Searl who enlisted December 13, in the 20th U. S. Engineers Corps as bugler of his company, has written his mother that he has landed in France.

E. M. Slattery of the town of Carson was among the business officers at the Tribune office Wednesday. Mr. Slattery reports most of the snow gone up his way and says that the roads are commencing to dry up in places, although the worst is yet to come.

Attorney C. B. Edwards is a candidate for mayor of the city of Grand Rapids, his opponent being Henry Kalsched, Mayor Folker, who held the office for three terms having declined to run again. Mr. Edwards will be remembered as the senatorial candidate for district attorney at the last election.

DON'T FORGET THE GARDEN THIS YEAR

Right now is the time to commence to think about the garden that you are going to plant this year. Because potatoes are low in price this spring is no reason why you should not put forth the same effort as you did last season. Had it not been for the efforts that were made along this line last season, we might now be paying three dollars a bushel for our tubers, and hard to get at that price. A meeting will be held at the Elk club on Monday evening of next week for the purpose of making the initial move in the garden proposition in this city, and it is asked that there be a good attendance of the people of Grand Rapids so that some line of action may be mapped out for the coming campaign. It is felt by those interested in winning the war that greater energy should be put forth this year than was even done last, as the indications are that there will be a scarcity of the necessities of life this coming season, and that transportation facilities will be no better than they were last season. The time to provide against a shortage is right now, and then start the work with the opening of spring and keep it up during the summer.

LENROOT AND DAVIES

Altho the reports from all over the state are incomplete at this time, there is no doubt but what Lenroot was the choice of the republicans for United States senator and that Davies was the choice of the democrats.

The race between Lenroot and Thompson on the republican ticket is very close, altho Davies leads McCarthy by a big majority in the state. In Wood county the vote between Thompson and Lenroot was close, and in the city of Marshall Thompson won out by one majority.

The vote in Wood county has not all been returned to the county clerk at this writing, there being four precincts to hear from, they being the towns of Auburnville, Sherry, Marshall and Richfield. From the other towns as far as heard from the vote stands as follows:

Lenroot . . . . . 900

Thompson . . . . . 860

Davies . . . . . 675

McCarthy . . . . . 122

Borgar . . . . . 65

The last vote in the state to give on the incomplete returns this morning is as follows:

Lenroot . . . . . 68,532

Thompson . . . . . 66,206

Davies . . . . . 54,172

McCarthy . . . . . 13,282

Borgar . . . . . 36,645

IMPORTANT NOTICE

On account of the present shortage of sugar in this vicinity, I hereby require that all persons having more than 30 lbs. of sugar on hand, or in any such excess over to the dealers, taking a receipt therefor, which mail to me, so that a record can be made of this patriotic action. Failure to comply with this order will be considered willful hoarding, and may result in investigation by United States Food Inspectors.

Dated Marshall, Wis., March 14, 1918.

J. C. POIRS,

County Federal Food Administrator.

NEW PUBLICITY MAN

Editor E. S. Bailey of Marshall has been appointed as county publicity director for Wood county, the appointment having been made by Attorney T. W. Hanson of this city. Mr. Bailey is a resident of Marshall and has been in the Third Liberty Loan campaign. Clarence Jackson will look after the work in Grand Rapids and R. J. Strauss after the Marshall and of the county.

April 6th has been set for the opening of the next campaign and it is expected that the loan will be for six billion dollars.

WILL ADOPT DAYLIGHT SAVING

The president has signed the daylight saving bill, which means that the clocks of the country will be set one hour ahead on the 31st of March and remain that way until the last of October. All business will run along the same as it does now, the only difference being that things will start up an hour earlier in the morning and closing down an hour earlier in the evening. People who care to work in the gardens or go out riding will have an hour more of daylight at their disposal.

MAKING THE KAISER DANCE

G. J. Keady has recently completed a mechanical toy in the shape of the Kaiser, which, when the motor is turned on, does various steps heretofore unknown to lovers of Terpsichore. Uncle Sam stands by, playing a banjo, while the devil flows the situation from the other side. It is very new toy and has attracted considerable attention.

THREE CASES OF SMALLPOX

City Health Officer Loose reports that there are three cases of smallpox in the city at the present time and a very neat toy and has attracted considerable attention. The doctor also advises that it would be a wise precaution for parents to have their children vaccinated. Both the smallpox and fever patients are under quarantine.

ANNOUNCEMENT

To the voters of Grand Rapids: I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of city treasurer, and if elected will perform the duties of the office to the best of my ability.

JOHN SCHNABEL, Sr.

INCREASE PARCEL POST WEIGHT

The government has increased the weight that may be sent by parcel post to 70 pounds. This applies to articles in the first, second and third zones. Fifty pounds is the limit in other zones.

NOW IN FRANCE

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Otto have received word from their son Earl, who has arrived safely in France. He is playing with the 124th Field Artillery Band, and was a member of the local band before joining the army.

Gorman Evangelical Church

We invite the public herewith for the next Sunday's opportunities in the G.A.R. hall: 9:00 o'clock in the morning Evangelical Sunday school. 10:30 o'clock in the morning divine service (confirmation). Everybody is cordially welcome.

Minister.

HOW A GERMAN ALIEN MAY CHANGE HIS RESIDENCE

A German alien changing his place of residence to another place within the same registration district shall immediately report such change to the registration officer of the registration district and present to registration officer his registration card for the purpose of having endorsed thereon by such registration officer the change of residence. A German alien enemy who desires to change his place of residence to a place of residence within another registration district must obtain a permit. Such permit to the registration officer of the district in which he then resides and make application for the permit on a form supplied by the registration officer and present his registration card to the registration officer for the purpose of having the permit endorsed on the registration card. If the registration officer denies the application there may be no appeal. Under certain circumstances set forth in Article XIII, Paragraph 3, of the General Regulations, to the United States Marshal of the judicial district for final action.

German alien enemies will readily understand who is meant by "registration officer." They are the officers who issued the registration cards. Chiefs of police in cities of 5,000 or more are registrars for those German aliens living within the city limits, and postmasters of offices through which the alien enemy gets his mail are registrars in all other areas. The general idea is that the German alien enemies are not supposed to move about freely from place to place, and registration officers are not expected to give permission for change of residence unless very good and substantial reasons exist for the change. Registration officers are supposed to know where each of the registrants connected with their offices are at all times. Aliens leaving their home districts and going to larger cities are likely to find themselves in prohibited areas without area permits, and if so found will be immediately arrested.

Any violation of the regulations will subject the offender to summary arrest and subsequent internment.

Yours very truly

Frank O'Connor,

U. S. Marshal.

DEATH OF E. C. SMITH

Edward C. Smith, one of the old and respected citizens of this city, died at his home on Saturday after an illness of some length. Mr. Smith had been a sufferer for several years past, altho able to be about most of the time until the last few days. He was born in New Jersey in 1843, and was 75 years old at the time of his death. He has long been a resident of this city where he had many friends among both the old and young. He was a veteran of the Civil war and was a member of the local G.A.R. Post.

Besides his wife he is survived by two sons, Bert and William, who reside at Atlanta, and has also one sister, Mrs. John J. Daly, in this city. Both of the children were here to attend the funeral, which was held on Tuesday from the home, Rev. R. L. Locke of the Congregational church officiating.

THE SUGAR QUESTION

At one of the noon-day lunches for business men it was suggested that on account of the shortage of sugar, the same should be omitted from future lunches.

Objection to this was made by one of our Grand Rapids citizens, and he made a statement substantially as follows: "We will serve sugar just as long as the brewery can get it by the ear load."

The fact is, we never received a car of sugar at one time. The little sugar we are able to procure is used in the manufacture of soft drinks.

We do not NOW and NEVER have used sugar in the manufacture of beer.

This statement is made to correct a wrong impression.

Grand Rapids Drawing Co.

BURIED IN THIS CITY

The remains of Frazer Walsh were brought to this city and taken to the home of Mrs. and Mr. Wm. Vanden Brook on Friday and on Saturday morning the funeral was held from St. Peter & Paul church, Rev. Wm. Roding officiating.

Mr. Walsh died at his home in Minneapolis on March 12th, and was 33 years of age. He was well known in this city, having been born and reared here. He was a blacksmith by trade and had been employed in Minneapolis during the past six years. He is survived by his widow, three sisters, Mrs. M. W. VandenBrook, Margarette Vanden Brook and two brothers, George and James Walsh.

NOTICE TO C. O. F.

A new Court of Foresters is to be organized at Rudolph Sunday, March 24. All Foresters are invited to be present. Train leaves here at 11:35 a. m. and returning arrives here at 9:20 p. m. Math. H. Schlegel, R. S.

St. Peter & Paul Court No. 436.

PIN MONEY AND BONDS

Farmer's wives always have made a practice of raising chickens and selling eggs for pin money. Chickens and eggs have been bringing fabulous prices in these war times and will continue to bring high prices. The more chickens, the more pin money. Some of this money invested in Liberty Bonds will provide the farmer's wife with a good and amiable and feed and clothe him while he is defeating the Kaiser.

MADE A GOOD SPEECH

Ex-Congressman M. K. Riley, who spoke at Daly's Theatre Saturday evening, was a good talker, and those who heard him were well pleased with the fact that they were present. Altho Mr. Riley came here to talk for Mr. Davies, he did not confine himself to political matters, but made a good patriotic speech that would appeal to any loyal American.

SUCCESSFUL BASKET SOCIAL

Misses Alma Lueck and Rose Perch, teachers in the Two-Mile school, held a very successful and pleasant basket social at the school house Friday evening which cleared house of $25.05, which will be used to purchase an oil stove and dishes for the school.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Martin Frego on Friday, March 16.

RED CROSS BAZAAR STARTS OUT FINE

Those who went to the Amusement hall Tuesday evening, the opening night of the Red Cross Bazaar, were mostly surprised in a most agreeable manner. The manner in which the hall had been decorated and the tasty way in which the various exhibits had been arranged so as to attract attention, called forth many favorable comments, while the row of new, shiny automobiles down the center lent an air of affluence to the occasion that was calculated to make it a most enjoyable occasion for all who attended.

The manner in which the public responded to the invitation to attend was also very gratifying to the management and everybody was willing to let loose of a little money for the good of the cause, and the result was that the receipts were counted up at night after the first session, it was evident that their efforts were not misdirected. The receipts the first night amounted to something over $4.00, which was very good for the first night, and there is no question but what they will run much larger on coming nights.

Thursday evening (tonight) will be Neokosa night, when arrangements have been made to entertain the visitors from Neokosa, many of the visitors expressed their intention of attending the doings. As it is for a good cause, there is no reason why everybody should not donate a little something. Turn out on Neokosa night and make the thing a whirlwind success.

The merchants who are represented are the following:

Postoffice, with Thrift Stamps.
Relland Packing Company.
Joe Stamb, electrical supplies.
Nash Hardware Co., automobiles.
Frank Rogers, automobiles.
Wm. Schill, automobiles.
Johnson & Hill Co.
Daily Music Company.
J. C. Walzel.
Mrs. S. Steinberg.
Sheep, J. florist.
J. J. Cross.
Gleno Shoe Company.
Lewis Eron, plumber.
Nawlek Electric Company.
Cohen Department Store.
Mrs. G. S. Haurley.
John E. E.
Howard Variety Store.
Grand Rapids Milling Company.
Mott & Wood Creamery Company.
F. MacKinnon Wagon Works.

The members of the Red Cross served lunch in the balcony on Tuesday night, and the evening was a very successful one. The band will also be on hand every night to open the thing up with a few selections from this organization.

TEAM GOES TO APPLETON

The local basket ball team left on Tuesday for Appleton where they will take part in the annual tournament. The members of the team are Stark, Plummer, Smith, Johnson, Normington, King and Fritz.

The locals are one of the strongest teams in this vicinity, their only defeat being by Neokosa, at which time the boys were not in condition to play owing to the lameness of Plummer, or they would undoubtedly have won with their usual speed and vim. Plummer is still suffering to a certain extent from a sprained ankle which may prove somewhat of a handicap, provided the boys are hard pressed by their opponents. However, it is expected that they will make a first class showing even under existing disadvantages.

NEW PIANOS ARRIVE

Mrs. F. P. Daly reports the arrival of another carload of pianos, the famous "table" make, and anybody who is contemplating the purchase of a piano should see what she has to offer before making up their mind. The Cable line comprises a very complete assortment of instruments and is well worth looking over, and the styles are right up to the minute in every respect.

A new lot of the Edison Diamond Disc phonographs are also in stock, as well as all of the latest records. No trouble to show you what this wonderful machine will do, and make you a price that will suit as low as you can get by sending out of town for an instrument.

DRINKING WATER ALL RIGHT

Manager Weeks of the Electric and Water company reports that city water is now good for drinking purposes, there having been no river water pumped into the mains for several weeks past. Since the cold weather let up people have discontinued the practice of allowing the water to run in their houses, and the result is that the demand is not near as great as it was. It is to be hoped that by next winter the water problem in the city will be solved so that it will not be necessary to draw on the river to help out the supply.

YOUTH MUST BE SERVED

A young U. S. sailor on shore leave wandered into a shop in an English coast town and the miss at the counter showed him some feminine wares and suggested it would be nice to send to his sweetheart back home. "I'll Not!" responded the young man. "I'm going to send her a souvenir of my trip."

MISS ATWOOD ENTERTAINS

Miss Marion Atwood entertained a party of friends at her home on Monday evening of next week, on which occasion all members of the guard are requested to be present, as no excuses will be accepted.

VERY LITTLE BUILDING

It is evident that Grand Rapids will see less building this year than ever before, and contractors report that nothing of any size will be erected this year.

SUGAR IS SCARCE

For several days past the housewives of Grand Rapids have been carrying their sugar home in pretty small packages, only one pound here and there. It is scarce. It appears that the shortage is general, for local merchants have received requests from adjacent cities asking them to help them out of a temporary shortage of sugar. It was impossible for them to do so, as they did not have the stock, some of the local merchants being entirely out.

BUY ICE CREAM BUSINESS

W. R. Chambers has bought out the ice cream business of the Mott & Wood company, and the Mott & Wood company have taken over the butter business of the Chambers Creamery company. Hereafter the Mott & Wood company will devote their entire time to the making of butter and furnishing pasteurized milk, and the Chambers company will manufacture ice cream only. This will enable both of the firms to give their patrons better service than they were able to do before.

MEASLES ARE PREVALENT

According to reports from the teachers in our public schools and others, there never was a time when so many pupils were compelled to remain away from school on account of measles. Contrary to general belief, there are many of the children who now have the measles who have had the disease once before, which would indicate that the best plan is to use all possible precautions to prevent the children from having the disease at all.

DON'T FORGET THE GARDEN THIS YEAR

Right now is the time to commence to think about the garden that you are going to plant this year. Because potatoes are low in price this spring is no reason why you should not put forth the same effort as you did last season. Had it not been for the efforts that were made along this line last season, we might now be paying three dollars a bushel for our tubers, and hard to get at that price.

LENROOT AND DAVIES

Altho the reports from all over the state are incomplete at this time, there is no doubt but what Lenroot was the choice of the republicans for United States senator and that Davies was the choice of the democrats.

The race between Lenroot and Thompson on the republican ticket is very close, altho Davies leads McCarthy by a big majority in the state. In Wood county the vote between Thompson and Lenroot was close, and in the city of Marshfield Thompson won by a majority.

The vote in Wood county has not all been returned to the county clerk at this writing, there being four precincts to hear from, they being the towns of Ashmun, Sibley, Marshfield and Richmond. From the other towns as far as heard from the vote stands as follows:

| Davies   | 122    |
| Berger   | 565    |
| The total vote in the state as given by the incomplete returns this morning is as follows: |        |
| Lenroot  | 68,532 |

| Davies   | 54,172 |
| McCarthy   | 13,262 |

HOW A GERMAN ALIEN MAY CHANGE HIS RESIDENCE

A German alien changing his place of residence to another place within the same registration district shall immediately report such change to the registration officer of the registration district and present to registration officer his registration card for the purpose of having endorsement thereon by such registration officer the change of residence. A German alien who desires to change his place of residence to a place of residence within another registration district, must obtain a permit. Such permit may be obtained by the alien himself to the registration officer of the district in which he then resides and make application for the permit on a form supplied by the registration officer, and present his registration card to the registration officer for the purpose of having the permit endorsed on the registration card. If the registration officer deems the application there may be an appeal under certain circumstances set forth in Article XIII, Paragraph 3, of the General Regulations, to the United States Marshal of the judicial district in which the alien resides.

German alien enemies will readily understand who is meant by "registration officer." They are the officers who issued the registration cards. Chiefs of police in cities of 5,000 or more are registrars for these German aliens living within the city limits, and postmasters of offices thru which the alien enemy gets his mail are registrars in all other areas. The general idea is that the German alien enemies are not supposed to move about freely from place to place, and registration officers are not expected to give permission for change of residence unless very good and substantial reasons exist for the change.

Registration officers are supposed to know where each of the registrants connected with their offices are at all times. Aliens leaving their home districts and going to larger cities are likely to find themselves in prohibited areas without area permits, and if so found will be immediately arrested.

Any violation of the regulations will subject the offender to arrest and subsequent internment.

Yours very truly

Frank O'Connor,

U. S. Marshal.

Mr. Smith had been a sufferer for several years past, altho able to be about most of the time until last fall. He was born in New Jersey in 1843, and was 75 years old at the time of his death. He has long been a resident of this city where he had many friends among both the old and young. He was a veteran of the Civil war and was a member of the local G.A.R. Post.

Besides his wife he is survived by two sons, Bert and William, who reside at Atlanta, and has also one sister, Mrs. John E. Daly, in this city. Both of the children were here to attend the funeral, which was held on Tuesday from the home, Rev. R. I. Locke of the Congregational church officiating.

THE SUGAR QUESTION

At one of the noon-day lunches for business men it was suggested that on account of the shortage of sugar the same should be omitted from future luncheons.

Objection to this was made by one of our Grand Rapids citizens, and he made a statement substantially as follows: "The beer will serve sugar just as long as the brewery can get it by the car load."

The fact is, we never received a car of sugar at one time.

The little sugar we are able to procure is used in the manufacture of soft drinks.

We do not NOW and NEVER have used sugar in the manufacture of beer.

This statement is made to correct a wrong impression.

PIN MONEY AND BONDS

Farmer's wives always have made a practice of raising chickens and selling eggs for pin money. Chickens and eggs have been bringing fabulous prices in these war times and will continue to bring high prices. The more chickens, the more pin money. Some of this money invested in Liberty Bonds will provide the farmer's boy with a gun and ammunition and feed and clothe him while he is defeating the kaiser.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for Supervisor in the Third Ward, City of Grand Rapids, and if elected will discharge the duties of the office to the best of my ability.

EMMETT T. MCCARTHY.

RED CROSS BAZAAR STARTS OUT FINE

Those who went to the Amusement hall Tuesday evening, the opening night of the Red Cross Bazaar, were mostly surprised in a most agreeable manner. The number in which the hall had been decorated and the fastidious way in which the various exhibits had been arranged so as to attract attention, called forth many favorable comments, while the row of new, shiny automobiles down the center lent an air of affluence to the occasion that was calculated to make it a most enjoyable occasion to all who attended.

The manner in which the public responded to the invitation to attend was also very gratifying to the management and everybody was willing to let loose of a little money for the good cause.

The receipts for the first evening were $8.50, which was very good for the opening night, and there is no question but what they will run much larger on coming nights.

Thursday evening (tonight) will be Nekosco night. However, the bazaar has been made to entertain the visitors from Nekosco, many of whom have expressed their intention of attending the doings. As it is for a good cause, there is no reason why everybody should not donate a little something. Turn out on Nekosco night and make the thing a whirlwind of a success.

Among the merchants who are represented are the following:

Reiland Packing Company.
Joe Staub, electrical supplies.
Nash Hardware Co., automobiles.
Fred Ragan, automobiles.
Wm. Schill, automobiles.
Johnson & Hill Co.

The Red Cross served lunch in the balcony and music will be furnished every evening by the Dillon orchestra. The band will also be on hand every night to open the thing up with a few selections from this organization.

TEAM GOES TO APPLETON

The local basket ball team left on Tuesday for Appleton where they will take part in the annual tournament. The members of the team are Stark, Plummer, Smith, Johnson, Normington, Kling and Fritz.

The local one of the strongest teams in this vicinity, their only defeat being by Nekosco, at which time the boys were not in condition to play owing to the lameness of Plummer, or they would undoubtedly have won with their usual speed and vim. Plummer is still suffering to a certain extent from a sprained ankle which may prove somewhat of a handicap, provided the boys are hard pressed by their opponents.

It is expected that they will make a first class showing even under existing disadvantages.

NEW PIANOS ARRIVE

A new lot of the Edison Diamond Disc photographs are also in stock, as well as all of the latest records. No trouble to show you what this wonderful machine will do, and make you a real expert on it. It is to be hoped that you can get by sending out of town for an instrument.

DRINKING WATER ALL RIGHT

Manager Weeks of the Electric and Water company reports that the city water is now good for drinking purposes, there having been no river water pumped into the mains for several weeks past. Since the cold weather let up people have discontinued the practice of allowing the water to run in their houses, and the result is that the demand is not near so great as it was. It is to be hoped that by next winter the water problem in the city will be solved so that it will not be necessary to draw on the river to help out the supply.

YOUTH MUST BE SERVED

A young U. S. sailor on shore leave wandered into a shop in an English coast town and the miss at the counter showed him some home made jam and suggested it would be nice to send to his sweetheart back home.

"Hell No!" responded the young man. "I'm going to send her a suspender button off the kaiser's pants as a souvenir of my trip."

That young man and thousands more like him deserve the support of all of us back home. Buy a Liberty bond and back him up.

SECOND ARMY DRAFT NOW ON

95,000 Men Will Move to Training Camps Beginning March 29.

FURLOUGHS FOR AGRICULTURE

Those in First Call Not Desired at This Time Will Be Left and 40,000 Taken From Second—New Plan Announced.

Washington, March 14.—There will be no date set for the second draft, for the very sufficient reason that the second draft is on now.

The call issued on Tuesday for 95,000 men to be assembled during the five days beginning March 20 would go 20,000 into the second installment if all the men liable to service under the original call were used. Actually the 95,000 will take in 40,000 or 50,000 of the young men of the second installment, while a lot of the original draftees will not be taken at the call.

It will be when it is convenient for the call to handle them.

Hillman, for instance, is required to send 1,963 as his quota of the 95,000. There remain 1,963 of the original draft, even after these have gone to the camps. Wisconsin is asked for 2,214, Michigan for 5,558 and Indiana for 2,977, while Iowa and Minnesota are not required to send any.

There are calls from states that have filled their quota of the first draft, and some states that still owe men on that account are passed over. This simply means that the selective system has taken the place of the lottery plan, and that from this time on the United States will take men as it needs them, choosing the particular kind of men and being guided by the capacity of particular camps to absorb them, and other considerations.

The general scheme of the new arrangement was announced on Tuesday by an official bulletin from Provost Marshal General Crowder's office.

According to this bulletin, 800,000 has been decided on as the number to be used for the purpose of allocating the quotas of the various states. This does not mean that 800,000 will be called out—the number may be only 500,000, or there may be 1,000,000—the elastic quality of the law makes either figure possible.

A group will be summoned every month or two.

For a month past skilled men have been gathered for service here and abroad.

"This is a war of mechanics," says Crowder, and then he tells how he is going to get the mechanics into the army with the minimum disturbance.

"I, Men who already are in the military service, who have such special skill, will be taken from the line regiments and assigned to the staff organizations and departments where their skill is needed.

"Men classified by the selection boards, even though they may have been placed in a deferred classification, will be withdrawn with great care and particularly from the industries of the nation for special service in staff corps and departments."

"Young men of draft age, with certain educational qualifications, will be inducted into the service and sent to universities, colleges and technical and secondary schools, to be instructed in technical arts until they have acquired such proficiency as will justify their assignment to the special units that are being organized in considerable numbers.

"In accordance with this plan the provost marshal general has already called upon the states for 10,000 skilled artisans, and will shortly call upon the states for 10,000 young men, graduates of grammar schools, who will be sent before April 1 to various technical and other schools throughout the United States for a two months' course of training.

"It would be a most unscientific and foolish step if the men in class 1 were called indiscriminately, without regard to the labor situation in agriculture."

As a final contribution to the cause of food growing, agricultural students in their senior year, who stand among the first third of their classes are to have their draft calls deferred to enable them to finish their courses.

"Secretary Baker has not determined the length of time he will remain in France but his stay will be long enough to enable him to make a thorough inspection of the American forces abroad and to hold important conferences with American military officers.

"It is expected that not only will Secretary Baker visit the American headquarters but his inspection tour will cover construction projects including roads, railroads and air bases, now way back of the American line."

"The secretary's visit is military and not diplomatic.

"It is essentially for the purpose of inspection and personal conference with military officials.

VOTES TO SELL FOE'S PROPERTY

Senate Unanimously Orders Kaiser's Commercial Grip in U. S. Severed.

RESIDENTS ARE UNAFFECTED

Property or Money of Germans or Austrians Living Here Will Be Protected—No Violation of Treaty.

Washington, March 13.—Legislation authorizing the sale of all enemy property in this country, requested by the alien property custodian, A. Mitchell Palmer, to uphold permanently German commercial influence, was approved by the senate on Monday.

An amendment empowering the president to acquire title to the German steamship companies' docks and wharves at Hoboken, N. J., also was accepted.

The vote on the provision for the sale of enemy property was unanimous, 84 to 0, and came after several hours' scathing denunciation of German Kultur and intrigues for world domination.

Enemy property within the meaning of the law is property owned in an enemy country, and official assurances have been given that there is no intention to interfere with the property or money of Germans or Austrians living in this country.

The purpose is to sever forever the hold of Germans in Germany upon vast commercial and industrial enterprises in the United States which have been closely connected with the Kaiser's government, serving as outposts of the Teutonic movement for world domination.

That Germany regards the 1709 treaty as "a mere scrap of paper" was asserted by Senator Underwood of Alabama, who said the treaty did not interfere with the sale of German property proposed.

AMERICA STANDS BY RUSSIA

"Although the government of the United States is, unhappily, not now in a position to render the direct and effective aid it would wish to render, I beg to assure the people of Russia through the congress that it will avail itself of every opportunity to secure for Russia more complete sovereignty and independence in her own affairs and full restoration to her great role in the life of Europe and the modern world."

"The whole heart of the people of the United States is with the people of Russia in the attempt to free themselves forever from autocratic government and become the masters of their own life."

(Signed) "WOODROW WILSON."

U. S. TROOPS RAID TRENCH

Americans Go Over the Top in Toul Sector and Find Enemy Has Fled.

With the American Army in France, March 13.—Troops holding the American sector north of Toul made a successful raid against the Boches early Monday morning. This was the first exclusively American raid without French participation. The American raiders went over the top after 45 minutes' artillery preparation. They penetrated the German trenches and returned successfully. There were no prisoners, as the trenches and dugouts had been demolished and the Boches had withdrawn to their rear lines. The artillery bombardment started at 5:50 a. m. The heavy guns centered their fire on the German guns and rear organizations, while the lighter pieces swept the trenches, smashing dugouts and other defenses. Under cover of a barrage the German wire was blown up by American engineers. The infantry then went over the top. The artillery preparation was entirely successful. The enemy had made the trip across No Man's Land and returned practically free from enemy shell fire.

USE OF ADDRESSES GIVES FOE VALUABLE INFORMATION.

Washington, March 11.—The war department has ruled that the military casualty lists to be made public in newspapers shall not include the emergency addresses—the names and addresses of relatives or friends.

The committee on public information, of which George Creel is chairman, has refused to put out the casualty lists through its news channels unless they include the emergency address.

The committee takes the ground that a mere list of names without means of identification is not public information.

Orders from the White House may be necessary to straighten out the matter.

Reports of casualties continue to arrive at the war department and have been offered to the committee on public information in abbreviated form for dissemination through the regular news channels. They merely give the men's names and ranks.

When Mr. Creel and the chiefs of the news division learned that merely the names were to be given out they decided that the committee would not publish the lists.

SECOND ARMY DRAFT NOW ON

95,000 Men Will Move to Training Camps Beginning March 29.

FURLOUGHS FOR AGRICULTURE

Those in First Call Not Desired at This Time Will Be Left and 40,000 Taken From Second—New Plan Announced.

Washington, March 14.—There will be no date set for the second draft for the very sufficient reason that the second draft is on now.

The call issued on Tuesday for 95,000 men to be assembled during the five days beginning March 29 would go 20,000 into the second installment if all the men liable to service under the original call were used. Actually, the 95,000 will take in 40,000 or 50,000 of the young men of the second installment, while a lot of the original draftees will not be called to the colors at all. Their time will come, but it will be when it is convenient for the camps to handle them.

Illinois, for instance, is required to send 1,961 as its quota of the 95,000. There remain 6,900 men of the original draft, even after these have gone to the camps. Wisconsin is asked for 2,217, Michigan for 5,528 and Indiana for 2,972, while Iowa and Minnesota are not required to send any.

There are calls from states that have filled their quotas of the first draft, and some states that will have men on that account are passed over. This simply means that the selective system has taken the place of the lottery plan, and that from this time on the United States will take men as it needs them, choosing the particular kind of men and being guided by the capacity of particular camps to absorb them, and other considerations.

The general scheme of the new arrangement was announced on Tuesday by an official bulletin from Provost Marshal General Crowder's office.

According to this bulletin, 800,000 has been decided on as the number to be used for the purpose of selecting the quotas of the various states. "This does not mean that 800,000 will be called out—there may be only 500,000, or there may be 1,000,000—the elastic language of the law makes other figures possible.

A group will be summoned every month or two.

For a month past skilled men have been gathered for service here and abroad.

"This is a war of mechanics," says Crowder, and then he tells how he is going to get the mechanics into the army with the minimum disturbance.

"1. Men who already are in the military service, who have such special skill, will be taken from the line regiments and assigned to the staff organizations and departments where their skill is needed.

"2. Men classified by the selection boards, even though they may have been placed in a deferred classification, will be withdrawn with great care and particularly from the industries of the United States for a two months' course of training.

"It would be a most unscientific and untimely step if the men in class 1 were called indiscriminately, without regard to the labor situation in agriculture," says the provost marshal general. "Therefore, the local boards will be directed to give their quotas in the order of ability of men in class 1 as determined by the national drawing, except that where it is shown that a registrant is completely and assiduously employed in the planting or rearing of a crop, his call to the colors shall be deferred to the foot of the quota of his class as long as he continues to be so engaged."

As a final contribution to the cause of food production, agricultural students in their senior year, who stand among the first third of their classes are to have their draft calls deferred to enable them to finish their courses.

VOTES TO SELL FOE'S PROPERTY

Senate Unanimously Orders Kaiser's Commercial Grip in U. S. Seized.

RESIDENTS ARE UNAFFECTED

Property or Money of Germans or Austrians Living Here Will Be Protected—No Violation of Treaty.

Washington, March 13.—Legislation authorizing the sale of all enemy property in this country, requested by the alien property custodian, A. Mitchell Palmer, to uphold permanently the German commercial indemnity, was approved by the senate on Monday.

An amendment empowering the president to acquire title to the German steamship companies' docks and wharves at Hoboken, N. J., also was accepted.

The vote on the provision for the sale of enemy property was unanimous, 64 to 0, and came after several hours' scathing denunciation of German Kultur and intrigues for world domination.

Enemy property within the meaning of the law is property owned in an enemy country, and official assurances have been given that there is no intention to interfere with the property or money of Germans or Austrians living in this country.

The purpose is to sever forever the hold of Germans in Germany upon vast commercial and industrial enterprises in the United States which have been closely connected with the German government, serving as outposts of the Teutonic movement for world domination.

"That Germany regards the 1700 treaty as a mere scrap of paper" was asserted by Senator Underwood of Alabama, who said the treaty did not interfere with the sale of German property proposed.

"Although the government of the United States is, unhappily, not now in a position to render direct and effective aid it would wish to render, I beg to assure the people of Russia through the congress that it will avail itself of every opportunity to secure for Russia once more complete sovereignty and independence in her own affairs and full restoration to her great role in the life of Europe and the modern world.

"The whole heart of the people of the United States is with the people of Russia in the attempt to free themselves forever from autocratic government and become the masters of their own destiny."

U. S. TROOPS RAID TRENCH

Americans Go Over the Top in Toul Sector and Find Enemy Has Fled.

With the American Army in France, March 13.—Troops holding the American sector north of Toul made a successful raid against the Boches early Monday morning. This was the first exclusively American raid without French participation. The American raiders went over the top after 45 minutes' artillery preparation. They penetrated the German trenches and returned successfully. There were no prisoners, as the trenches and dugouts had been demolished and the Boches had withdrawn to their rear lines. The artillery bombardment started at 5:50 a. m. The heavy guns centered their fire on the German guns and rear organizations, while the lighter pieces swept the trenches, smashing dugouts and other defenses. Under cover of a barrage the German wire was blown up by American engineers. The infantry then went over the top. The artillery preparation was entirely successful. The infantry made the trip across No Man's Land and returned practically free from enemy shell fire.

95,000 Men Will Move to Training Camps Beginning March 29.

FURLOUGHS FOR AGRICULTURE

Those in First Call Not Desired at This Time Will Be Left and 40,000 Taken From Second—New Plan Announced.

Washington, March 14.—There will be no date set for the second draft for the very sufficient reason that the second draft is on now.

The call issued on Thursday for 95,000 men to be assembled during the five days beginning March 29 would mean that the second installment of all the men liable to service under the original call were used. Actually the 95,000 will mean in 40,000 or 50,000 of the young men of the second installment, while a lot of the original draft will not be taken to the colors at all. Their time will come, but it will be when it is convenient for the camps to handle them.

Illinois, for instance, is required to send 1,361 as its quota of the 95,000. There remain 6,000 men of the original draft, even after these have gone to the camps. Wisconsin is asked for 2,214, Michigan for 5,558 and Indiana for 2,077, while Iowa and Minnesota are not required to send any.

There are calls from states that have filled their quota of the first draft, and some states that still owe men on that account are passed over. This simply means that the selective system has taken the place of the lottery plan, and that from this time on the United States will take men as it needs them, choosing the particular kind of men and doing just what it wants to do with them.

The general scheme of the new arrangement was announced on Tuesday by an official bulletin from Provost Marshal General Crowder's office. According to this bulletin, 800,000 has been decided on as the number to be used for the purpose of allotting. This does not mean that 800,000 will be called out—there may be only 500,000, or there may be 1,000,000—the elastic language of the law makes either figure possible.

A group will be summoned every month or two. For a month past skilled men have been gathered for service here and abroad.

"It is a war of mechanics," says Crowder, and then he tells how he is going to get the mechanics into the army with the minimum disturbance. "I. Men who already are in the military service, who have such special skill, will be taken from the regular assignments and assigned to the staff organizations and departments where their skill is needed."

"2. Men classified by the selection boards, even though they may have been placed in a deferred classification, will be withdrawn with great care and particularly from the industries of the nation for special service in staff corps and departments."

"3. Young men of draft age, with certain educational qualifications, will be inducted into the service and sent to universities, colleges and technical and secondary schools, to be instructed in technical arts until they have acquired such proficiency as will justify their assignment to the special units that are being organized in considerable numbers."

"In accordance with this plan the provost marshal general has already called upon the states for some 10,000 skilled artisans, and will shortly call upon the states for 10,000 young men, graduates of grammar schools, who will be sent before April 1 to various technical and other schools throughout the United States for a two months' course of training."

"It would be a most unscientific and foolish step if the men in class 1 were called indiscriminately, without regard to the labor situation in agriculture," says the provost marshal general. "Therefore, the local boards will be directed to fill their quotas in the order of liability of men in class 1 as determined by the national drawing, except that where it is shown that a registrant is completely and assiduously employed in the planting or reaping of a crop, his call to the colors shall be deferred to the foot of the quota of his board as long as he continues to be so engaged."

As a final contribution to the cause of food growing, agricultural students in their senior year, who stand among the first third of their classes are to have their draft calls deferred to enable them to finish their courses.

"The secretary's visit is military and not diplomatic.

"It is essentially for the purpose of inspection and personal conference with military officials.

VOTES TO SELL FOE'S PROPERTY

Senate Unanimously Orders Kaiser's Commercial Grip in U. S. Severed.

RESIDENTS ARE UNAFFECTED

Property or Money of Germans or Austrians Living Here Will Be Protected—No Violation of Treaty.

Washington, March 13.—Legislation authorizing the sale of all enemy property in this country, requested by the alien property custodian, A. Mitchell Palmer, to uphold permanently German commercial influence, was approved by the senate on Monday.

An amendment empowering the president to acquire title to the German steamship companies' docks and wharves at Hoboken, N. J., also was accepted.

The vote on the provision for the sale of enemy property was unanimous, 64 to 0, and came after several hours' searching denunciation of German knavery and intrigues for world domination.

Enemy property within the meaning of the law is property owned in an enemy country, and official assurances have been given that there is no intention to interfere with the property or money of Germans or Austrians living in this country.

The purpose is to sever forever the hold of Germans in Germany upon vast commercial and industrial enterprises in the United States which have been closely connected with the Kaiser's government, serving as outposts of the Teutonic movement for world domination.

Tan. Germany regards the 1799 treaty as "a mere scrap of paper" was asserted by Senator Underwood of Alabama, who said the treaty did not interfere with the sale of German property proposed.

"Although the government of the United States is, unhappily, not now in a position to render the direct and effective aid it would wish to render, I beg to assure the congress that it will avail itself of every opportunity to secure for Russia once more complete sovereignty and independence in her own affairs and full restoration to her great role in the life of Europe and the modern world."

"WOODROW WILSON."

U. S. TROOPS RAID TRENCH

Americans Go Over the Top in Toul Sector and Find Enemy Has Fled.

With the American Army in France, March 12.—Troops holding the American sector north of Toul made a successful raid against the Boches early Monday morning. This was the first exclusively American raid without French participation. The American raiders went over the top after 45 minutes' artillery preparation. They penetrated the German trenches and were successful. There were no prisoners, as the trenches and dugouts had been demolished and the Boches had withdrawn to their rear lines. The artillery bombardment started at 5:30 a. m. The heavy guns centered their fire on the German gas and rear organizations, while the lighter pieces swept the trenches, smashing dugouts and other defenses. Under cover of a barrage the German wire was blown up by American engineers. The infantry then went over the top. The artillery preparation was entirely successful. The infantry made the trip across No Man's Land and returned practically free from enemy shell fire.

HOLD CASUALTY LISTS

USE OF ADDRESSES GIVES Foe Valuable Information.

Washington, March 11.—The war department has ruled that the military casualty lists to be made public in newspapers shall not include the emergency addresses—the names and addresses of relatives or friends.

The committee on public information, of which George Creel is chairman, has refused to put out the casualty lists through its news channels unless they include the emergency address.

The committee takes the ground that a mere list of names without address of identification is not public information.

Orders from the White House may be necessary to straighten out the matter.

Reports of casualties continue to arrive at the war department and have been offered to the committee on public information in abbreviated form for dissemination through the regular news channels. They merely give the men's names and ranks.

When Mr. Creel and the chiefs of the news division learned that merely the names were to be given out they decided that the committee would not publish the lists.

The machine had been demolished and its crew of four hundred to death. Sixty-one defensive airplanes from the trenches camps of Paris took the air. Many enemy machines were repulsed by the aerial defense and did not succeed in reaching Paris. ## AMERICANS WIN BATTLE HONORS

Officers and Enlisted Men Alike Given Decorations for Bravery.

PRaise FOR AMBULANCE MEN

French Authorities Recognize Splendid Work in Aiding the Wounded—United States Troops Occupy First German Trenches.

With the American Army in France, March 10.—Capt. Douglas MacArthur, Capt. Thomas Handy and eight American enlisted men have been decorated with the French Croix de Guerre (war cross) for gallantry in action.

MacArthur (deleted by the censor) the troops in the Lunville region. He is the colonel who went over the top with the French recently when they took several German prisoners, after passing through a German barrage. He also went over the top on Saturday's raid.

One who hails from Virginia, accompanied MacArthur in the Franco-American raid.

The other soldiers receiving the war cross in this region were:

Private O. S. Gordon of Iowa. Warner Hunt of Alabama, who led a patrol of 15 men into No Man's Land, where they encountered two Boches. They killed two, wounded two and took the others prisoner.

Yankees in First German Trenches. With the American Army in France, March 16.—American troops now occupy their first German trenches, which they took from the enemy (1,242 miles) of front line positions in the Badonvillers region on the Lunville front.

The positions were occupied in broad daylight by the Americans after German evacuation. The German barrage later forced a withdrawal, but the Sammlers returned and now firmly hold the positions.

The positions have been mounted, automatic rifles have been defended, and they are fully equipped. The Sammlers have an excellent addition to our lines.

Enemy Afraid of Yankees. The Germans are playing a safe defensive game on all fronts where they are confronting Americans, it has been made apparent by recent raids. In expectation of these raids the enemy simply evacuated all front positions and retired to the safety of the rear lines.

It is now permissible to state that the troops in the Lunville region who made a raid without opposition are from Ohio. Volunteers were called for to participate in the raid. So many wanted to go that only a few were selected from each company.

The participants included boys from Cincinnati, Marion, Circleville, Cleveland, London, Marysville, Columbus and Dayton.

JAPAN READY TO ACT

Intervention in Siberia Only Question of Time.

Mobilization of Forces Well Under Way—Tokyo Says America Backs Move.

Tokyo, March 16.—Japanese intervention in Siberia is believed merely to be a question of time. All indications and the Japanese mobilization increase this belief, though government officials have not disclosed their policy toward Siberia.

SAYS TREAT JAPAN BETTER

Dr. Sidney L. Gulick Calls American Policy Toward Ally Too Humiliating.

Boston, March 16.—Failure of the United States to adopt a more liberal policy toward Japan and China can hardly prevent driving these countries ultimately into German relations, in the opinion of Dr. Sidney L. Gulick, secretary of the commission on relations with the Orient of the federal council of churches of Christ in America, who addressed the Woman's City club. Doctor Gulick for 25 years was a resident of Japan.

"America should abandon its humiliating and discriminatory treatment of Japanese and Chinese in this country," he said, "and adopt an Oriental policy fitted to hold these people permanently to friendly relations with the democratic nations of the West."

SHOULD RAISE WHEAT

Owing to the fact that there will be an unusual demand for wheat during the war, the government is asking the farmers of Wisconsin to plant more wheat than usual this year. In fact every farmer should raise enough wheat for his own use and a little more. There was a time when the farmers of Wisconsin turned their attention pretty much to the business of raising wheat, but they have found more profitable crops, and the result is that the bulk of wheat is left for regions better adapted to its growth.

However, it is a fact that wheat can be grown in Wisconsin, and at the prices that prevail at the present time and promise to continue in the future, there is no question but what it will pay a fair return for the labor expended and the ground used. Farmers should pay more attention to this crop than ever before and thus do their bit toward helping out a shortage that threatens to become quite stringent before hostilities are over.

"Our country! In her intercourse with foreign nations, may she always
be in the right; but our country
right or wrong."—Stephen Decatur.

For United States Senator—
JOSEPH E. DAVIES

WHERE DAVIES STANDS

Milwaukee, March 20.—Joseph E.
Davies' attitude toward labor is explained in the following statement:
"The question at issue in this election is whether we desire to stand behind our country aggressively and helpfully to win this war.
If so, we should send to Washington
a man who will sustain the President and the United States unflinchingly, one who will aid, not hamper; one who will help, not harass; one who will serve, not entangle."

Compensation Act Extended
"There never has been a president of the United States who has more devotedly sympathized with the national and hopes of labor, or who has done more in the name of social justice, than he. It was under his administration that the workingman's compensation act was extended to all civil employees of the government by a law that surpasses in scientific provisions and liberal compensation any law theretofore drafted and enacted.
"It was due to his personal intervention that the child labor law was enacted, and the federal power used to emancipate children from industrial oppression, and thus accomplish the most important measure of social justice. It was under his administration that the department of labor extended its great functions under my friend, Secretary Wilson's direction.
It was the President of the United States who saw and stood for the justice and the principle of the eight hour day being applied to rail operatives."

"It was under his direction that
the provision was inserted in the Clayton act which forever prevented the abuse of the industrial labor disputes, and declared that the labor of a human being was not a commodity of commerce, open to barter and sale like an inanimate thing,
and thereby gave to labor of America
the great charter of its rights and liberties. These accomplishments of the past are the best promise for the future."

Leaders Can Testify
"During my official work it has been my privilege to serve and protect the rights of labor, as Frank Walsh of the Industrial Commission, Hugh Prancey, Samuel Gompers and others with whom I have worked,
can and will testify.
"That we should not have a man seek this great office as the candidate of any single class in the community.
Wisconsin believes with me that the rights of all classes must be preserved and advanced with justice—so that we may continue a government of free men and not an anarchy of
contending class dominations."

Proud of Confidence
"For five years I have been a part of the President's administration. I have his confidence and take great pride in that fact. I shall, if elected, support him devotedly and unflinchingly to the successful prosecution of
this war."

GERMAN ATROCITIES TO BOOST WAR LOAN

E. J. Chlopek, Manitowish's en-ergic Liberty Loan campaign director recently brought to the attention of
William L. Ross, Federal Director of
Sales for Wisconsin, some live-wire
publicity ideas that set a lively pace for the Wisconsin towns. The ideas suggested by Mr. Chlopek have been indorsed by M. I. Stouven, Wisconsin
Director of Publicity, for use all over the state.

A black-and-white figure hanging in front of a modern trench, reproduced in a lot as near to the business center of the town as possible will be featured under a powerful searchlight, while Liberty Loan speakers talk from an adjacent platform. The recollection of the mutilated soldiers whose corpses were returned to the Americans last October by the Huns in just such a manner will give indisputable corroboration to the speakers' point that this is a war for the life of humanity and that every man and woman must buy Liberty Bonds.
Questions in terse form will be flashed upon a screen behind the trench.
"Soldiers' eyes have been gouged out! What will you loan your government in support of the great criminal hunt?"—Merely mislead-ingly! Buy Liberty Bonds to break the Hun power that perpetrated these crimes!

The same trench and entanglements will be used another evening
as the background for the figures of Red Cross stretcher bearers, shedding blood while bringing in the wounded.
As realistic effects as possible will be achieved that the enormity of the crime may strike home to the spectators.
The bombing of a miniature hospital with a small amount of explosive dropped from a toy aeroplane suspended by wires will be another feature of Mr. Chlopek's tangible demonstrations of "Why to Buy Liberty
Bonds."

ARMY HORSE BUYER WILL VISIT 12 BADGER TOWNS

Twelve carloads of heavy draft horses will be purchased in Wisconsin from March 18 to April 6 by the United States army for use in France.
Lieut. Col. G. W. Winterburn of the quartermaster corps in Chicago, in company with officials of the Wisconsin College of Agriculture and the United States department of agriculture selected 12 towns in as many different sections and purchased all horses that pass the tests.

A uniform price of $200 is to be paid. This is said to be the highest sales rate in live years on the class of animal to be selected. Officials of the Wisconsin Horse Breeders' association are making efforts to insure the farmer the full benefit of the offer.
It is intended to obtain horses direct
from the owners.

This is the first opportunity the Wisconsin farmer has been given to sell animals of the kind for government use. Many farmers can get along with one horse less, while many others will find it a big advantage to sell a gelding to the government and sell a young mare from a neighbor.
The animals must be geldings (15 per cent may be mares) between 5 and 10 years old. White horses will not be accepted. The weight must be 1,400 to 1,700 pounds, and the height between 16 and 17 hands.
The horses must be sound, gentle and broken to harness, and must pass the mallein test for glanders.

It is intended to send the horses across as soon as possible where they will be used to draw siege artillery.
Purchases are being made in the central states, the first 500 to come from Wisconsin and Minnesota.
Because the shipping facilities are much better than in regions farther west.

Purchases will be made at the
towns named below if at least a carload of 20 horses can be accepted at the prices named: March 18, Barron;
March 20, Bloomer; March 21, Black
River Falls; March 23, Mondovi;
March 25, Dodgeville; March 28;
Fond du Lac; April 1; Oshkosh; April
2; Denmark; April 3; Janesville; April 5.

WARN FARMERS AGAINST THE WHITE GRUB PEST

"Unless Wisconsin farmers are careful to choose their crop rotations
with due regard to the danger from certain crop pests they will suffer
heavy damage from the white grub
this season."

This is the warning which is being given by specialists who are familiar with the life cycles of this pest. The grubs were very destructive in the summer of 1915 and have been passing thru the three successive stages, bringing them back to white grubs
this spring.
To lessen the damage from these pests farmers are advised to avoid planting corn, potatoes or other root crops on lands that were into grass, small grains or timothy in 1917.
Land that was planted to corn and root crops last year and which contain few grubs this spring, should be sown. The beetle prefer to lay their eggs elsewhere. Clover, peas and beans, the experimenters say, are not readily attacked by the grubs.

March 15, 1915—Enrollment, 335; attendance, 324.

The increase in enrollment in the high school cannot continue at the rate we have experienced the last few years without making evident in a forcible way the need of additional room.

All recreation rooms are now used 100 percent for recreation purposes. Teachers use the superintendent's office or the assembly room for consultation periods. Due to the increase in enrollment, another teacher was engaged in the high school during this year.

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL:
At present all eighth grade pupils must be treated like seniors or seniors like eighth grade pupils. This has a detrimental moral effect on one part of the high school, in consequence.

Because of the close proximity of seats, it is a very easy matter for pupils not right minded to help themselves to materials of other pupils without permission. The moral is self-evident.

Mr. A. A. Douglas of Clark university undertook the study of the "Junior High School" from 1914-1916. His findings are published under the auspices of the "National Society for the Study of Education" and may be summarized as follows:

1. "Tests show that relatively little progress is made in the seventh and eighth grades in the common branches while leading educators contend, and experimental evidence confirms the contention, that the tools of learning may be acquired in six years and that eight are not required."

2. "The whole school system will be more nearly unified by grouping together children of the same mental and physical development. The elementary school (grades 1 to 6), the junior high school (grades 7 to 9), 18. South Milwaukee, 137.

Mr. L. M. Nash then spoke on the distribution of garden seeds to encourage the cultivation of vacant spaces and incidentally to reduce the high cost of living. He suggested that seeds might be distributed thru the schools and that suitable exhibit may be planned for and prizes offered later.

Those interested were requested to see Mr. Nash. No formal action on the part of the meeting was taken.

Mr. D. D. Conway moved that it is the sense of this meeting that the school board be authorized to take such means as may be necessary to stamp out petty thefting which occasionally manifests itself in the schools. Motion seconded.

After discussion by various members, including Mr. D. D. Conway, Mr. T. A. Taylor, Mrs. J. J. Looze, Mrs. Sam Church, Mr. C. W. Schwede, and others, during which it was brought out that such conditions are neither new nor peculiar to any one institution, but that rubbers, umbrellas, mittens, and gloves were occasionally lost in other places where large groups gathered as well as in the schools. Mr. Schwede stated that the Board of Education had had under consideration means of making absolutely safe the clothing and supplies of pupils, but that it would require an outlay of some three thousand dollars ($3,000.00) to provide such facilities.

A large amount of books and wearing apparel lost was due to carelessness by misplacing the articles as shown by the large number of rubbers, caps and books in the office which are unclaimed. Furthermore, the teachers and authorities of the school are doing all in their power by precept, admonition, and vigilance, in cooperation with the right minded pupils, to combat any such tendency on the part of a few individuals to take things not belonging to them. Where no suitable locker accommodations are provided under such crowded conditions as we have in the high school building, the problem is a large one, and closer cooperation of parents was asked for by Mr. Schwede.

Mr. J. R. Ragan spoke on the difference between the cost of educating the pupils in the high school and the tuition paid by the towns for such education. He suggested that possibly the legislature might be appealed to in this matter so as to overcome the difference. No formal action was taken.

Motion to adjourn was then carried. C. W. SCHWEDE, Secretary of meeting.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENT

Arabs Love Turkish Delight.
The confection known as "Turkish delight" is the most important used by the Arabs of Arabia. Reports United States Consul Addison L. Southard of Aden. This is made from sugar and American starch, with flavoring and sometimes almonds or the kernels of ground nuts. Turkish delight often makes up the bulk of the Arab's breakfast, and it is eaten often at other times.

Should Keep Piano Dry.
The most frequent cause of keys sticking in pianos is damp. Keep the instrument in a dry room, out of any draught, and in as even a temperature as possible. Take off the keyboard cover, and rub the damp key underneath and down the sides with fine emery paper, this will probably remove the damp, thoroughly dry the key bed, that is underneath where the key fits, and replace the key.

Honest Confession.
No man can ever lack this mortification of his vanity, that what he knows is but a very little in comparison with what he is ignorant of. Consider this, and instead of boasting thy knowledge of a few things, confess and be out of countenance for the many more which thou dost not understand.—Thomas A. Kempis.

In the Embryo.
Gertrude strutted about like a peacock with her aunt's hat and veil on. Billy, her cousin, peered fun at her. "Oh, baby of the veil, they're such for ladies," he said. Gertrude lost in time in saying: "Well, I'm the beginning of a lady, ain't I?"

Moved and carried that a vote by 151 ballot be taken on this resolution. Voters were instructed by the chairman to vote "Yes" if in favor of the resolution and "No" if opposed. The result of the ballot was Yes 92; No 68; total number of votes cast 126. The majority having voted "Yes," the resolution was declared adopted.

It is a mighty poor specimen that has to resort to her lower limbs to attract attention instead of her comely face and intelligence." What a funny, dried up old codger Corland must be. "Apparatus," says he. Don't the old grub know that the "V-shaped apparatus at their necks" is their own fluttering chests? The economy of short sleeves should be extended to the stockings. There is a horrid waste of silk hosiery in extending them up to the point of invisibility. Let us be economical in these trying war times. All this Bostonian prudishness, this Puritanical austerity, this half-old-boy puppycock simply shows what a mistake it is to let a Boston bachelor stand up behind a pulpit and explode his gas shell.—Neillsville Times.

EXPECTS TO LEAVE SOON

Henry Karnatz of this city is now located at Charlotte, North Carolina, and he writes that he is with the 4th U. S. Engineers of the regular National Guard, and he says that he likes it very much. He continues: "There are a fine bunch of fellows and are mostly western boys, coming from Vancouver barracks. It is much more interesting than the infantry. The weather down here is certainly great. We run around in our shirtsleeves and it is just the same as it is up there in June and July, but the evenings get rather cool. We have everything we need for going over, and I think that they will send us over quick and the boys are anxiously waiting for it."

"It seems queer to see so many colored people, and I should judge that fully half the population is colored. Another interesting thing to me was the large cotton fields. We had a nice trip on the way down here, having followed the Allegheny mountains down all the way from Pittsburgh."

"Plumbing that Pleases," "Eron the Plumber."

MINSTRELS AND THE WAR TAX

When the Lowery Greater Minstrels appears in Daly's Theatre Friday, March 22, matinee and night, this irresistible attraction will prove a boon for the war tax revenue. Recently when a patron of this show entered the Empire Theatre at Quincy, Ill., and paid his war tax as he entered he was heard to remark, "Well I will enjoy the minstrels better now that I feel that I am in my seat laughing I have at the same time contributed toward the salaries of the men who are at the front fighting in order that I may continue to enjoy life as I like." The man who was a lawyer certainly expressed a happy thought.

It would be selfish if we were not willing to contribute a few pennies for the Army, for our neighbor's son and our nation's welfare while we enjoyed an evening's entertainment as those in the army were suffering the privations and inconveniences of the trench or tent fields. By remaining away from the amusements which call for a tax on admission tickets we do not assist the nation, but if we satisfy our innate desire to see a first class minstrel, and by attending can also contribute a comparative mite to the patriotic cause—then the entertainment of the evening is doubly enjoyable.

It is a fact that Lowery's Greater Minstrels this season turning people away five nights out of the week by the hundreds and the theatre managers declare that the few pennies war tax is paid cheerfully by the patrons. In addition to assisting Uncle Sam by the mite of a ticket, war tax, the minstrel patrons are also deeply inspired and moved by a number of patriotic songs and parodies which comprise a portion of the long and exceptional program of this attraction. Such songs as "Over There," "Over the Top," "W-I-L-L-S-O-N Spells Wilson," "Never" are all calculated to stir one's patriotism.

Lowery's Greater Minstrel company consists of thirty-five highly educated, refined, colored performers who are real artists and yet who retain their natural capacity for fun and comical antics. Any person who will not laugh at the new jokes and comic songs of the Lowery Greater Minstrels or enjoy patriotic thrills because of the inspiring songs and thrilling music is certainly out of tune with human nature.

E. E. Camp of the town of Grand Rapids was among the pleasant callers at the Tribune office Wednesday. Mr. Camp reports that the roads here drying up in good shape down his way, and that the snow has also disappeared.

THE KAISER AS A BUSINESS MAN

Over in Germany the government owns 97 per cent of the railways. If the Kaiser and some of his friends decide it would be more profitable for them to have a certain district raise, say sugar beets instead of wheat, the rates for shipping grain are placed so high that the farmer has to grow beets at a loss to enrich the German sugar trust in which the Kaiser and his friends have invested some of their millions. Soldiers in France and Liberty Bonds at home will keep all that in Germany.

DEATH OF ISAAC STEPHENSON

Isaac Stephenson of Marinette, former United States senator, died at his home on Friday of last week at the age of 89 years. Mr. Stephenson came to Wisconsin when a young man and engaged in lumbering and amassed a fortune which was estimated at $40,000,000 at the time of his death, and it was stated that he was the richest man that was ever a member of the United States senate.

For Correct Lubrication Use Polarine

The Standard Oil Company of Indiana proposes that you shall have some straight-from-the-shoulder, reliable first-hand information as to what correct lubrication is.

Each week this paper will contain an advertisement dealing with this subject. Read them.

Lubrication is vital in operating an automobile, yet not one motorist in 100 really appreciates its importance.

Around it evolves either extravagance or economy of operation, enjoyment or troubles.

Polarine and Avoid Mistakes It Flows Freely at ZERO

It is recommended by the Standard Oil Company for any style or make of standardized automobile engine, at any motor speed or temperature.

If your car has a sleeve-valve type motor, or if compression is poor, use Heavy Polarine.

Polarine will add power and life to your motor.

A thin film of Polarine between your pistons and cylinder walls eliminates friction (wear) and seals your compression chambers against loss of power.

Polarine is made, guaranteed and recommended by the greatest oil refining organization in the world.

Use it in your car and be convinced.

CHINESE COLONY AT TOMAH

Tomah, Mar. 20.—Greeted by a large crowd of curious people fifteen families of Chinese, headed by the famous Hip Lung, "Mayor of Chinatown," alighted from a train here on the afternoon of March 5. They formed the most curious gathering ever seen in this city.

The Chinamen will raise garden truck on recently purchased drained land near Tomah in the counties of Monroe and Juneau. The small number reaching here are to be followed by hundreds of their fellows who will desert their Chinatown homes and laundries from the Pacific to the Atlantic. It is believed that upwards of 900 yellow men will come to Wisconsin.

Hip Lung, the best known Chinaman in America, and the man who conducted the Chinatowns of Chicago, St. Louis and San Francisco world fairs, recently made the statement that his people could raise enough food to feed America.

Chicago, Mar. 5.—Twelve expert Chinese agriculturists left here today for Tomah, Wis., to establish the camp of the "Back to the Land" movement of Chinese residents of the United States. The party is under the leadership of Hip Lung, mayor of "Chinatown." Upward of fifteen hundred acres of land in Wisconsin have been leased by Hip Lung to try the experiments of Chinese truck gardening in this part of the country as a war and economic measure. By fall a large number of Chinese are expected to be at work on the land.

Owing to the fact that there will be an unusual demand for wheat as long as the war lasts, the government is asking the farmers of Wisconsin to plant more wheat than usual this year. In fact every farmer should raise enough wheat for his own use and a little for the market. There was a time when the farmers of Wisconsin turned their attention pretty much to the business of raising wheat, but they have found more profitable crops, and the result is that the raising of wheat is left for regions better adapted to its growth.

However, it is a fact that wheat can be grown in Wisconsin, and at the present time and promise to continue in the future, there is no question but what it will pay a fair return for the labor expended and the ground used. Farmers should pay more attention to this crop than ever before and thus do their bit toward helping out a shortage that threatens to become quite stringent before hostilities are over.

with foreign nations, may she always
be in the right; but our country
right or wrong."—Stephen Decatur.

For United States Senator—
JOSEPH E. DAVIES

WHERE DAVIES STANDS

Milwaukee, March 20.—Joseph E. Davies' attitude toward labor is explained in the following statement:
"The question at issue in this election is whether we desire to
stand behind our country aggressively and helpfully to win this war or whether we should stand behind
a man who will sustain the President of the United States unalteringly;
one who will aid, not hinder; one who will help, not harm; one who will serve, not enslave."

Compensation Act Extended

"There never has been a president
of the United States who has more devotedly sympathized with the aspirations and hopes of labor, or who has done more in the name of social justice than he. It was under his administration that the workingman's
compensation act was extended to all civilian employees of the government by law that has since been extended to all civilian employees of the government and liberal compensation any law therefore drafted and enacted."
"It was due to his personal intervention that the child labor law was enacted, and that the scientific provisions and liberal compensation any
law therefore drafted and enacted."

"It was under his direction that
the provision was inserted in the law that which forever after prevented the abuse of the injunction in labor disputes, and declared that the labor of a human being was not a
commodity of commerce, open to barter and sale like an inanimate thing,
and thereby gave to labor of America
the great charter of its rights and liberties. These accomplishments of the past are the best promise for the
future."

Laborers Can Testify
"During my official work it has been my privilege to serve and protect the rights of labor, as Frank
W. Taylor, chief of the Industrial Commission, Frank P. Taylor, Samuel Compers and
others with whom I have worked,
can and will testify."

"But we should not have a man seat his great office as the candidate
of any single class in the community.
Wisconsin believes with me that the rights of all classes must be preserved and advanced with justice so that we may have a government
of free men and not an anarchy of
contending class dominations."

Proud of Confidence
"For five years I have been a part of the President's administration. I have his confidence, and take great pride in that fact. I tell, if elected,
support him devotedly and unflinchingly to the successful prosecution of
this war."

GERMAN ATROCITIES
TO BOOST WAR LOAN

E. J. Chloupek, Manitowish's energetic Liberty Loan campaign director recently brought to the attention of
William L. Ross, Federal Director of
Sales for Wisconsin, some live-wire
publicity ideas that set a lively pace
for the Wisconsin towns. The stunts suggested by Mr. Chloupek have been indorsed by M. I. Stevens, Wisconsin
Director of Publicity, for use all over
the state.

A khaki-clad figure hanging inert in a barb wire entanglement in front of a modern trench, reproduced in a lot as near to the business center of the town as possible will be featured
under a powerful searchlight, while Liberty Loan speakers talk from an adjacent platform. The recollection of the mutilated soldiers whose cor-puses were returned to the Americans last October by the Huns in just
such a manner will give indisputable
corroboration to the speakers' points
that this is a war for the life of humanity and that every man and
woman must buy Liberty Bonds.
Questions in terse form will be flashed upon a screen behind the trench.
Soldiers' eyes which have been gouged
out! What will you loan your government in support of the great criminal hunt? "Merely mutilated by Liberty Bonds to break
the Hun power that perpetrated these
crimes!"

The same trench and entanglements will be used another evening
Red Cross satchel bearers, shod down while bringing in the wounded.
As realistic effects as possible will be
achieved that the enormity of the crimes may strike home to the spectators.

The bombing of a miniature hospital with a small amount of explosive
dropped from a toy aeroplane suspended by wires will be another feature of Mr. Chloupek's tangible demonstrations of "Why to Buy Liberty
Bonds."

ARMY HORSE BUYER WILL VISIT 12 BADGER TOWNS

Twelve carloads of heavy draft
horses will be purchased in Wisconsin from March 12 to April 6 by the United States army for use in France.
Lieut. Col. G. W. Winterburn of the quartermaster corps, in conference with officials of the Wisconsin Cattle and Horse Raisers' Association, selected 12 towns in as many different counties at which he will hold inspection and purchase all horses
that pass the tests.

A unit of $200 is to be paid. This is said to be the highest rates rate in five years on the class of animals to be selected. Officials of the Wisconsin Horse Raisers' association are making efforts to insure the
farmer the full benefit of the offer.
It is intended to obtain horses direct
from the owners.

This is the first opportunity the Wisconsin farmer has been given to
sell animals of the kind for government use. Many farms can get along with one horse less, while many others will find it a big asset to sell to the government and buy a young mare from a neighbor.

The animals must be geldings (15
per cent may be mares) between 5 and 10 years old. White horses at least 1400 to 1700 pounds, and the height between 16 and 17 hands.
The horses must be sound, gentle and
broken to harness, and must pass the
mallein test for glanders.

It is intended to send the horses
across as soon as possible where they will be used to draw siege artillery.
Purchases are being made in the
central states, the first 500 to come from Wisconsin and Minnesota because the shipping facilities are much better than in regions farther west.

Purchases will be made at the
towns named below. If at least a carload of 20 horses is accepted at each point: Amery, March 18; Barron,
March 20; Bloomer, March 21; Black
River Falls, March 23; Mondovi,
March 26; Dodgeville, March 28;
Fond du Lac, April 1; Oshkosh, April
3; Denmark April 5; Juneau April 5.

WARM FARMERS AGAINST THE WHITE GRUB PEST

"Unless Wisconsin farmers are
careful to choose their crop rotations
with due regard to the danger from
certain crop pests they will suffer
heavy damage from the white grub
this season, not only to their crops,
but to their livestock."

This is the warning which is being given by specialists who are familiar with the life cycles of this pest. The grubs were very destructive in the summer of 1917. If at least a carload of 20 horses is accepted at each point: Amery, March 18; Barron,
March 20; Bloomer, March 21; Black
River Falls, March 23; Mondovi,
March 26; Dodgeville, March 28;
Fond du Lac, April 1; Oshkosh, April
3; Denmark April 5; Juneau April 5.

Don't Talk About the Kaiser

But Talk About Improving Your Cows

Our herd of pure bred Holstein-Friesian cows is doing the best this winter it ever has done. No trick at all to get more than fifty pounds of milk a day from three-year-old heifers, and they keep it up every day, week in and week out. But no wonder, their sire is a grandson of one of the greatest cows the world has ever seen, Colantha 4th's Johanna.

Milk for one year ..... 27432 pounds
Butter for one year ..... 1247 pounds
No use asking about the bulls we have been advertising, as they are sold. Went like hot cakes. But we have some little fellows that certainly are dandies. They are sired by another grandson of

THREE CHAMPIONSHIP TITLES CHANGE HANDS IN SHORT TWENTY-FOUR HOURS

Three titles are now in new hands. And it all happened in 24 hours. At Antio, Ia., Earl Caddock, a private in the National Army, was awarded a referee's decision over Winder Zhyzsko, champion wrestler. Caddock took the first fall after one hour and twenty minutes of rough going. When the agreed limit of two and a half hours of actual wrestling had expired the referee awarded the decision to Private Caddock, N. A. The decision carried the title with it.

At Summit Lake, Bobbie McLean won the world's professional speed skating championship, defeating Edmund Lamy in three special events.

In Chicago, Augie Kieckhefer won the world's championship at three-cushion billiards from Alfred De Oro by scoring a total of 150 points to De Oro's 120.

TALK IS NOW NOT SO CHEAP AS IT ONCE WAS

Merrill Herald: Gus Folker, who owned the drug store of F. C. Zorn, who up to about two years ago, and who now travels for a drug store supply house, was at the depot last evening planning on taking the train to Fond du Lac. He attempted to argue the war question with several men standing on the platform, but was unable to "start anything."

Folker persisted in discussing the subject and finally began prying the German government saying that "the United States government was nothing compared with the German government and that the Kaiser was a much better man than the head of this government."

John Akers, who was standing nearby, cautioned Folker that he might be arrested for making statements of that character and Folker replied that no one dared to arrest him—he could say what he pleased.

Folker continued to argue and when Folker made the remark about not being afraid of being arrested, stopped up and placed him under arrest. He was taken to the city jail and held until this morning.

In court, Folker said that he had been drinking considerably yesterday and did not know whether or not he made the alleged remarks. Judge Porter examined that the testimony at the special session held recently, had passed a law which provides a minimum fine of $100 and a maximum fine of $1,000, or a year in the county jail, as a penalty for making seditious utterances about the government. Hereafter the maximum fine that could be imposed in this court was $100.

Several men, who heard Folker make these statements last evening, were in the city room ready to testify as to what he said. The administration, however, made it unnecessary to take any testimony and the judge imposed the fine which Folker paid. Folker now makes his home in Stevens Point.

FOR FISHERMEN

The action of the State Conservation Commission, published below, is of interest to all fishermen. In addition to this, Game Warden Lanning wishes to state that citizens of the state do not require a license for fishing with hook and line in inland waters, as the law has not been changed in that matter.

Chapter 128, laws of 1917, opened hook and line fishing in the state of Wisconsin on May 1, 1917. This chapter also provides that this Commission may issue an order opening the season on the same date, 1. e., May 1, 1918, if the conditions as to security and high prices for foodstuffs prevail in 1918.

Under date of March 1, 1918, this Commission took the following action:

1. In addition to the open season now provided by law any person who is a resident of the state of Wisconsin may catch fish, except large and small mouth black bass, muskellunge and sturgeon, from any of the waters of this state by means of hook and line from May 1, 1918, to May 29, 1918, both inclusive, subject to the following restrictions:

(a) The quantity of fish permitted to be so taken shall not exceed in any one day ten pounds round, except that two fish of any weight above legal size may be so taken.

(b) No fish taken under the provisions of this act shall be shipped, sold, or caused to be shipped, sold or bartered.

(c) No fish shall be taken by any method, by any means, or under any conditions, or of a length now prohibited by law for the taking, capturing, or killing of fish during the open season therefor.

(d) Violations of the provisions of this act shall be punished in the manner now provided by law for like offenses.

Yours very truly,
State Conservation Commission.
R. S. Scholten, Secy.

TO CONSERVE GRAIN

—Realizing that the conservation of foodstuffs is as important as food production, and that every possible means of conserving foodstuffs be investigated, we, the County Agents and Emergency Food Agents of eastern and northern Wisconsin assembled in conference at Appleton, Wisconsin, March 1, 1918, urge that the use of grains for the brewing of beer be prohibited for the period of the war, by the Federal Food Administration.

Such action would work a three-fold benefit:

1. By releasing a large supply of grain for food;

2. By releasing a large number of workmen for production of food stuffs;

3. By the releasing of cars, now being used for transporting beer, for transporting war munitions, seeds and foodstuffs.

Matching Mail Order Merchandise

In one of our booths at the Red Cross Bazaar is something you should be interested in, whether or not you have ever purchased from mail order houses.

Undeniably the general impression, even among merchants, has been that large mail order houses sell cheaper.

Upon investigation, we found that this is a fairly tale skillfully impressed, and that in a great many instances these concerns oversell the country merchant. Step into our booth when you go to the carnival and see our comparisons. We can show you their goods and ours, side by side.

DAVIES' SPEECHES REVEAL THE MAN

EXTRACTS FROM ADDRESSES DELIVERED BY DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR SENATOR DISCLOSE THOUGHT AND VISION.

UNSWERVING IN HIS LOYALTY

Big, Vital Thing Is to Win the War. He Says—Can Be No Division of Council or of Parties—All Must Sustain the President.

In speeches delivered by Joseph E. Davies, Democratic candidate for United States senator, in Wisconsin and other parts of the country during the past year, he has taken the firm position that success of American arms in the struggle against the Germanic powers depends upon a united nation support. President Wilson. While all of these speeches, from which the appended extracts were taken, were made long before Mr. Davies had any thought of entering the senatorial race, they disclose consistent support of the government's war policy and devotion to the American ideals as voiced by the president. The extracts follow:

"The paramount and only consideration now is to win the war. All other problems must wait."

"It is, I believe, a manifestation of divine Providence that in this critical period when great forces are at work, the future of democracy is in the making. That there should be at the helm of the ship of state a leader who is thinking of preserving individualism in democracy, whose wisdom is based upon those fundamental principles which the economic and political history of the world has established, and who is so directing these great forces that they may be of the greatest effectiveness to win the war, and yet may be such that with victorious peace there should remain to the greatest possible degree such conditions as are compatible with the ideals of democracy, to wit, the greatest possible freedom and well-being of the individual which is compatible with the social welfare."

"The nation need have no fear of the future after the winning of the war."

"Prices have been increased by reason of fundamental economic laws, which will still be operating under any system of price control. The purchasing power of money itself is not reached by any system of price fixing. It is an economic fact well recognized that the rising price of labor. Actual wage, as measured by purchasing power. A standard of living wage under these conditions must be maintained, with the full appreciation of what it will entail in the reorganization of labor cost in international competition after the war."

"Responsibility and complete authority induce speed of action, which is a permanent necessity. The wisdom and clarity of vision of the president of the United States assures that there shall be no division of responsibility and authority to impair national effectiveness."

"A peace that contemplates the triumph of the Prussian system of political rule, which would rule the world, or a stalemate peace that would require this and all other nations to rather themselves together for a still greater struggle in the future are alike unthinkable."

"The government is thinking in terms of winning this war. A still greater participation of government itself in industry may be necessary. Whatever may be necessary for still greater co-ordination and effectiveness of industry will be done to win the war."

"Unfair competition is the seed of monopoly in industry. Control of the raw material, of transportation and unfair competition are the chief creators of private monopoly. Private monopoly is intolerable in a democracy, for it is the opposite of the ideal. It is, in fact not industrial freedom but industrial monopoly."

"It is our war now—it is a war not only to protect our material possessions—to protect our rights on the high seas—and to protect our homes and our conceptions of the rights of man—but it is a war to sustain the very fundamental cause of civilization—to sustain the rule of law in the world. It is a war to sustain Christian civilization, for the essence of Christianity is that altruism and law as enunciated by the Son of God should be the ruling power of the world instead of brute strength and mere power of might."

"The greatest hope for winning the war is to create in the minds and hearts of the German people the determination that they, and not their war-mongers shall guide their destinies. To assault the righteousness of our entry into this war, to question the integrity of our motives and our purposes is to raise doubts in the minds of the Germanic people and to give them comfort for our enemies."

LOSS OF LIFE AND WOUNDED IN THE CIVIL WAR

The following statement taken from the "Official Program and Souvenir," thirty-seventh annual report of the Grand Army of the Republic is a very nearly correct statement of the loss of life among the Union soldiers in the Civil War. In reading of the casualties of today in the great world struggle the figures given below may be interesting as a matter of comparison: Killed in battle, 61,362; died of wounds, 32,981; died of disease, 136,216; died in captivity, 35,000; various causes, 2,148. The number of Union soldiers wounded in action was 259,040 and 184,781 were captured. At the Battle of Gettysburg, July 1st to 3rd, 1863, there were the following casualties among the Union soldiers: Killed in battle, 2,831; wounded, 13,709; missing, 6,543. Among the Confederates there were 3,500 killed; 14,500 wounded and 13,621 missing.

BREAD RECIPES

The following have been tested by the High School Domestic Science department and are excellent:

Wisconsin Potato Bread (1-lb. loaf)
1 1/2 teaspoons salt.
1 tablespoon oil.
2 tablespoons sugar.
1/2 compressed yeast cake, or 1/4 cake dried yeast.
1 tablespoon warm water.
Boil and drain in a vegetable ricer or sieve. Soak or soften the yeast in the water. Mix the yeast with the potato, the salt, the oil and the sugar. Add 1/2 cup flour; mix well. Pour the mixture into a light sifter until a stiff dough is formed. It may take a little less or a little more than 2 cups. Let the dough rise until it doubles its bulk; knead the second time, form into a loaf and let it rise. When light bake in a moderate oven 1/2 of an hour.

3 teaspoons shortening.
2 cups seedless raisins.
2 cups compressed yeast.
Mix dry ingredients. Pare and boil potatoes and pour boiling water over dry ingredients. Add melted lard and seedless raisins. Mix stiff with whole flour or half mashed potatoes and half flour.

Dumb Dogs.

There are three kinds of dogs that have no voices and can not bark—the Egyptian shepherd dog, the Australian dog and the lion-headed dog of Tibet.

WAR GARDEN NOTES

"A garden for everybody, and everybody working a garden," is the aim of the leaders of Wisconsin's war garden work.

What is your town going to do about it? Good garden seed should be ordered early in the quantities actually needed. Save garden seed by having the ground thoroughly prepared and, if possible, well fertilized.

The State Council of Defense has asked the Wisconsin Horticultural Society and the horticultural department of the College of Agriculture to direct the garden work in the state. This organization hopes to reach the people in the city early enough to make the work most effective, and to encourage more bucket gardening.

It is possible to have a garden without starting part of it indoors, but it is usually more expensive or less satisfactory.

Clear boxes are convenient boxes in which to start the plants, but somewhat deeper boxes are desirable. Three or four will be sufficient to provide all the lettuce, cabbage and tomatoes used in the average garden. One box has a tight bottom make a few small holes in it to provide drainage.

An objection to growing early plants indoors is the damage to furniture and rugs resulting from watering. If the seed boxes are set in a sink or some such receptacle and left until the excess water is drained off, they may then be set on cloth or heavy paper, and no damage will result.

ANNOUNCEMENT

(This notice is paid for at regular advertising rates by the undersigned.) I hereby announce my candidacy for the office of Justice of the Peace, agreeing if elected to perform the duties of this office to the best of my ability.

For Correct Lubrication

Use Polarine

The Standard Oil Company of Indiana proposes that you shall have some straight-from-the-shoulder, reliable first-hand information as to what correct lubrication is.

Each week this paper will contain an advertisement dealing with this subject. Read them.

Lubrication is vital in operating an automobile, yet not one motorist in 100 really appreciates its importance.

Around it evolves either extravagance or economy of operation, enjoyment or troubles.

Use Polarine and Avoid Mistakes

It Flows Freely at ZERO

It is recommended by the Standard Oil Company for any style or make of standardized automobile engine, at any motor speed or temperature.

If your car has a sleeve-valve type motor, or if compression is poor, use Heavy Polarine.

Polarine will add power and life to your motor.

A thin film of Polarine between your pistons and cylinder walls eliminates friction (wear) and seals your compression chambers against loss of power.

Polarine is made, guaranteed and recommended by the greatest oil refining organization in the world.

Use it in your car and be convinced.

There is a horrid waste of silk hosiery in extending them up to the point of invisibility; let us be economical in these trying war times. Henry Karnatz of this city is now located at Charlotte, North Carolina, and he writes that he is with the 4th U. S. Engineers of the regular National Guard. And he says that he likes it very much. He continues: "They are a fine bunch of fellows and are mostly western boys, coming from Vancouver barracks. It is much more interesting than the Infantry. The weather down here is certainly great. We run around in our shirt sleeves and it is just the same as it is up there in June and July, but the evenings get rather cool. We have everything we need for going over, and I think that they will send us pretty quick, and the boys are anxiously waiting for it."

"It seems queer to see so many colored people, and I should judge that fully half the population is colored. Another interesting thing to me was the large cotton fields. We had a nice trip on the way down here, having followed the Allegheny mountains down all the way from Pittsburgh."

Tomah, Mar. 20.—Greeted by a large crowd of curious people fifteen families of Chicago Chinese, headed by the famous Hip Lung, "Mayor of Chinatown," alighted from a train here on the afternoon of March 5. They formed the most curious gathering ever seen in this city.

The Chinaman will raise garden truck on recently purchased drained land near Tomah in the counties of Monroe and Jackson. The small number reaching here are to be followed by hundreds of their fellows who will desert their Chinatown homes and laundries from the Pacific to the Atlantic. It is believed that upwards of 500 yellow men will come to Wisconsin.

Hip Lung, the best known Chinaman in America, and the man who conducted the Chinatowns of Chicago, St. Louis and San Francisco went with them, recently made the statement that his people could raise enough food to feed America.

Chicago, Mar. 5.—Twelve expert Chinese agriculturists left here today for Tomah, Wis., to establish the first camp of the "Back to the Land" movement of Chinese residents of the United States. The party is under the leadership of Hip Lung, mayor of "Chinatown." Upward of fifteen hundred acres of land in Wisconsin have been leased by Hip Lung to try the experiments. Chinese truck gardening in this part of the country as a war and economic measure. By fall a large number of Chinese are expected to be at work on the land.

—The Lowery Greater Minstrels appears in Daly's Theatre Friday, March 22, matinee and night. This irresistible attraction will prove a boon for the war tax revenue. Recently when a patron of this show entered the Empire Theatre at Quincy, Ill., and paid his war tax as he entered, he was heard to remark, "Well, I will enjoy the minstrels better now than I feel that as I am in my seat laughing I have at the same time contributed toward the salaries of the men who are at the front fighting in order that I may continue to enjoy life as I like." The man who was a lawyer certainly expressed a happy thought.

It would be selfish if we were not willing to contribute a few pennies for the Army, for our neighbor's son and our nation's welfare while we enjoyed an evening's entertainment as those in the army were suffering the privations and inconveniences of the trench or tent fields. By remaining away from the amusements which call for a tax on admission tickets we do not assist the nation, but if we satisfy our innate desire to see a first class minstrel, and by attending can also contribute a comparative mite to the patriotic cause—then the entertainment of the evening is doubly enjoyable.

It is a fact that Lowery's Greater Minstrels in this season turning people away five nights out of the week by the hundreds and the theatre managers declare that the few pennies war tax is paid cheerfully by the patrons. In addition to assisting Uncle Sam by the mite of a ticket war tax, the minstrel patrons are also deeply inspired and moved by a number of patriotic songs and parodies which comprise a portion of the long and exceptional program of this attraction. Such songs as "Over There," "Over the Top," "W-I-L-S-O-N Spells Wilson," "Never" are all calculated to stir one's patriotism.

Lowery's Greater Minstrel company consists of thirty-five highly educated, refined colored performers who are real artists and yet who retain their natural capacity for fun and comical antics. Any person who will not laugh at the new jokes and comic songs of the Lowery Greater Minstrels or enjoy patriotic thrills because of the inspiring songs and thrilling music is certainly out of tune with human nature.

Skat is a game of cards and it is harder to understand than algebra. It's all the card games mixed up in one. You know what they say about the chances of a rich man going to heaven. Well, that's about the chance a beginner has of winning. In leisure moments we have often watched the game and to the average onlooker it is surrounded with as much darkness as that which envelops a headwinded candidate when he takes the skyflying degree. There are solos and counter solos, turn-ups, rambos, guckers and grand, with more combinations to figure on than there is in a time lock. The big hand of all, and one which a player, if he is in luck, may hold in the course of six or seven hundred years, is called a grand schneider ungassacht. Lubrication is vital in operating an automobile, yet not one motorist in 100 really appreciates its importance.

Around it evolves either extravagance or economy of operation, enjoyment or troubles.

It is recommended by the Standard Oil Company for any style or make of standardized automobile engine, at any motor speed or temperature.

If your car has a sleeve-valve type motor, or if compression is poor, use Heavy Polarine.

Polarine will add power and life to your motor.

A thin film of Polarine between your pistons and cylinder walls eliminates friction (wear) and seals your compression chambers against loss of power.

Polarine is made, guaranteed and recommended by the greatest oil refining organization in the world.

TALK IS NOW NOT SO CHEAP AS IT ONCE WAS

Merrill Herald: Gus Polker, who owned the drug store of F. C. Ziemke up to about twenty years ago, and who now travels for a drug store supply house, was at the depot last evening planning on taking the train to Tomahawk. He attempted to argue the war question with several men standing on the platform, but was unable to "start anything."

Polker persisted in discussing the subject and finally provoked the German government saying that "the United States government was nothing compared with the German government and that the Kaiser was a much better man than the head of this government."

John Akey, who was standing nearby, cautioned Polker that he might be arrested for making statements of this character and Polker replied that no one dared to arrest him—he could say what he pleased.

Policeman Garfield had been standing nearby when Polker made the remark about not being afraid of being arrested, stepped up and placed him under arrest. He was taken to the city jail and held until this morning.

In court, Polker said that he had been drinking considerably yesterday and did not know whether or not he made the alleged remarks.

Judge Porter explained that the legislature at the special session held recently had passed a law which provides a minimum fine of $100 and a maximum fine of $1,000, or a year in the county jail, as a penalty for making seditious utterances about the government. Therefore the maximum fine that could be imposed in this case was $100.

Several men, who heard Polker make these statements last evening, were in the court room ready to testify as to what he said. His admissions, however, made it unnecessary to take any testimony and the judge imposed the fine which Polker paid.

Polker now makes his home in Stevens Point.

The car came to a stop on the corner of the body hit it is expected she will live, but her injuries are very serious.

FOR FISHERMEN

The action of the State Conservation Commission, published below, is for the voters of the city of Grand Rapids—I hereby announce myself as a candidate for assessor for the city of Grand Rapids and I elected will fill the office to the best of my ability.

GEORGE W. LYONS.

Chapter 128, laws of 1917, opened hook and line fishing in the state of Wisconsin on May 1, 1917. This chapter also provides that this Commission may issue an order opening the season on the same date, 1. e., May 1, 1918, if the conditions as to security and high prices for foodstuffs prevail in 1918.

Under date of March 1, 1918, this Commission took the following action:

(a) In addition to the open season now provided by law any person who is a resident of the state of Wisconsin may catch fish, except large and small mouth black bass, muskellunge, and any other species of fish of this state by means of hook and line from May 1, 1918, to May 25, 1918, both inclusive, subject to the following restrictions:

(1) The quantity of fish permitted to be so taken shall not exceed in any one day ten pounds round, except that two fish of any weight above ten pounds may be taken.

(2) No fish taken under the provisions of this act shall be shipped, sold, or caused to be shipped, sold or bartered.

(3) No fish shall be taken by any method, by any means, or under any conditions, or of a length now prohibited by law for the taking, capturing, or killing of fish during the open season.

(4) Violations of the provisions of this act shall be punished in the manner now provided by law for like offenses.

Yours very truly,
 State Conservation Commission,
 R. S. Scheibel, Secy.

TO CONSERVE GRAIN

—Realizing that the conservation of foodstuffs is as important as food production, and that every possible means of conserving foodstuffs be inaugurated, we, the County Agents and Emergency Food Agents of eastern and northern Wisconsin assembled in conference at Appleton, Wisconsin, March 1, 1918, agree that the use of grain for the brewing of beer be prohibited for the period of the war, by the Federal Food Administration.

Such action would work a three-fold benefit:

1. By releasing a large supply of grain for food.
2. By releasing a large number of workmen for production of foodstuffs.
3. By the releasing of cars, now being used for transporting beer, for transporting war munitions, seeds and foodstuffs.

Step into our booth when you go to the carnival and see our comparisons. We can show you their goods and ours, side by side.

TALK IS NOW NOT SO CHEAP AS IT ONCE WAS

Merrill Herald: Gus Folker, who owned the drug store of F. C. Zorn, 1114 N. 1st, up to about twenty years ago, and who now travels for a drug store supply house, at St. Paul, Minn., is now planning on taking the train to Tomahawk. He attempted to argue the war question with several men standing on the platform, but was unable to "reason" anything.

Folker persisted in discussing the subject and finally began praising the German government saying that "the United States government was being outwitted by the German government and that the Kaiser was a much better man than the head of this government."

John Akoy, who was standing nearby, cautioned Folker that he might be arrested for making statements of that character and Folker replied that no one dared to arrest him—he could say what he pleased. Folker then began to talk about the remark about not being afraid of being arrested, stepped up and placed him under arrest. He was taken to the city jail and held until this morning.

In court, Folker said that he had been drinking considerably yesterday and did not know whether or not he made the alleged remarks.

Judge Porter explained that the legislature at the special session held recently, had passed a law which provides a minimum fine of $100 and a maximum fine of $1,000, or a year in the county jail, as a penalty for making seditious utterances about the government. Heretofore the maximum fine that could be imposed in the county was $100.

Several men, who heard Folker make these statements last evening, were in the court room ready to testify as to what he said. His admissions, however, made it unnecessary to take any testimony and the judge imposed the fine which Folker paid.

Folker now makes his home in Stevens Point.

HURT BY AUTOMOBILE

Vesper Pioneer: Mrs. Ostermeyer was called to Seattle, Washington, Friday by a telegram announcing that her father and mother were both in a very critical condition, and that her father would probably have succumbed to his injuries before she arrived. On Sunday, March 3, Mrs. Ostermeyer and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Graham, started to go to church and when going across the street were knocked down by a passing automobile. The car came to a full stop on Mrs. Ostermeyer's body but it is expected she will live, but her injuries are very serious.

They make their home with their daughter Mrs. Ostermeyer, on the Seneca road but had gone west to visit another daughter.

FOR FISHERMEN

The action of the State Conservation Commission, published below, is of interest to all fishermen. In addition to this, the Commission has decided to state that citizens of the state do not require a license for fishing with hook and line in inland waters, as the law has not been changed in that matter.

Chapter 128, laws of 1917, opened hook and line fishing in the state of Wisconsin on May 1, 1917. This chapter also provides that this Commission may issue an order opening the season on the same date, 1. e., May 1, 1918, if the conditions are so favorable and high prices for foodstuffs prevail in 1918.

Under date of March 1, 1918, this Commission took the following action:

1. In addition to the open season now provided by law any person who is a resident of the state of Wisconsin may catch fish, except large and small mouth black bass, muskellunge and sturgeon, from any of the waters of this state by means of hook and line from March 1, 1918, to May 29, 1918, both inclusive, subject to the following restrictions:

(a) The quantity of fish permitted to be so taken shall not exceed in any one day ten pounds round weight, except that two fish of any weight above legal size may be so taken.

(b) No fish taken under the provisions of this act shall be shipped, sold, or caused to be shipped, sold or bartered.

(c) No fish shall be taken by any method, by any means, or under any conditions, or of a length now prohibited by law for the taking, capturing, or killing of fish during the open season thereof.

(d) Violations of the provisions of this act shall be punished in the manner now provided by law for like offenses.

Yours very truly,
State Conservation Commission.

W. L. Waggoner of Junction City writes us that before he bought an EMPIRE MILKER it required three to do the milking. Now he milks alone, gets cleaner milk, cows are better milked and in much less time.

The EMPIRE MILKER is today the cheapest and most valuable equipment a dairy farmer can get.

An EMPIRE MILKER and a 14-year-old boy is all the help needed to successfully operate a farm with 25 cows. Others are doing it. You can do it.

Come in and see these milkers or write us for a catalog.

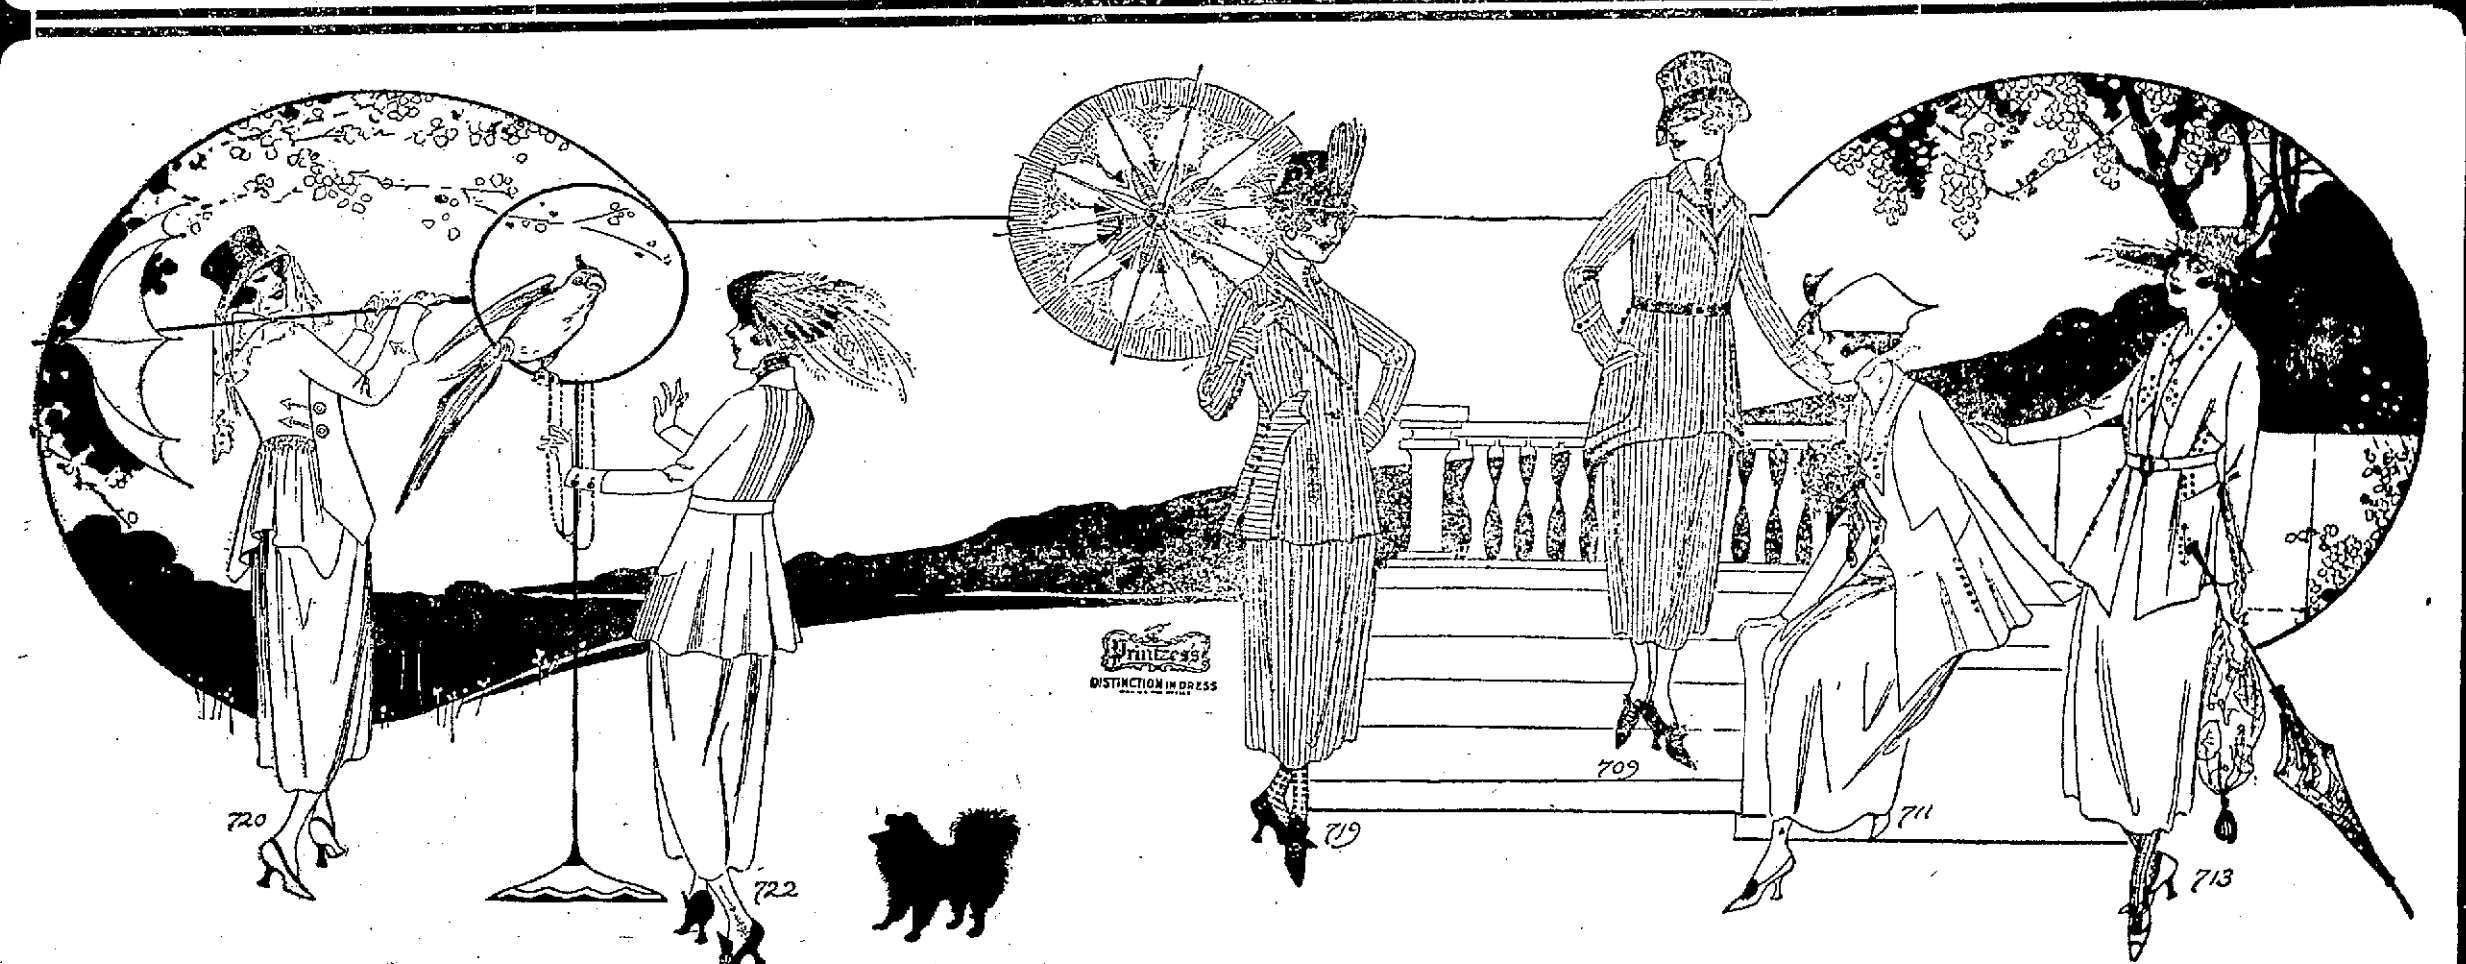

Are you going to build a new barn or remodel an old one? Let us equip it with the latest stalls, watering device, litter carrier. No job too big for us. Get our prices.

Upon investigation, we found that this is a fairly tale skillfully impressed, and that in a great many instances these concerns oversell the country merchant.

Step into our booth when you go to the carnival and see our comparisons. We can show you their goods and ours, side by side.
